WEEK OF THE BEAST LORDS

WOOLIE

POST CLEAR ELDEN RING CAST

0:33 Welcome to the castle super elden lord cast~! Lutherians have been introduced to the world. Anyway, pat was way off from his guess.

- 1:22 no questions AT ALL. nope. None. definitely none.
- 2:18 pat: This time around, it doesnt feel like there's no huge unknowns unlike the other souls games
- 3:22 discussing the end of eden ring. Whats the quickest way to beeline the critical path?
- 5:03 watched vaatividya after. Vaati practically being mandatory in the old games. There being an understandable series of events for characters
- 6:55 radagon/marika
- 9:08 the numen race and the outside world
- 11:50 the crucible, and vaati letting woolie upload him watching his videos
- 13:11 looking at the meta data through channels like zulli and illusionary wall, godfrey: the lion is holding him back
- 14:25 the urd tree possibly being fake, and das an alien~
- 15:12 but first, we still need to talk about taking the grab. The graces pointing at one another. Calling in nepheli
- 16:55 the theme kicking in, and an unfathomable alien looking thing
- 19:03 reggie: the final boss, another ulcerated tree spirit. And going back to seeing the final spirit. 3 in a row.
- 20:55 on the lore of the constant ulcerated tree spirits

- 21:35 on the final fight: more of a spectacle.
- 22:09 the dragonlord placidusax fight being the best dragon fight fromsoft has ever done
- 23:39 the enemy reuse and the game being huge. On the assumption people wont see everything.
- 25:38 the final sequence of boss fights are a series of cool fights. Also a series of Ideological fights.
- 26:49 radagon's rune is everywhere
- - 27:42 maliketh's arena having a unique version of the elden ring
- 28:37 woolie's gurrang theory
- 28:57 the maliketh fight, on the possibility of the DLC being in the capital so you'd need to replay the game up until that fight
- 30:21 the scars of the 3rd finger. It being the most interesting one. And the 'peace out there may be a god but Im not telling you' ending with ranni
- - 33:23 maliketh gets it bad
- 34:22 on ranni: undeath.
- 35:26 all the methods of death that can't do anything anymore
- 36:18 you cant just rework the laws of the universe. Its right there. Its the backyard~!
- 38:05 gold mask is the shit
- - 40:10 corhyn being the worst of the haircut gang according to pat
- 41:43 turtle pope
- 43:00 taking the fromsoft quest narrative design of 'they'd be better if they never met you.'
- 44:33 Jar Alexander, and shabriri will help you fight godfrey
- 45:17 where did you end with patches, pat?
- 46:54 the falling star beast life cycle

- 48:10 the insects coming out from the rot looking like termites
- 48:59 butterflies
- 50:30 woolie will need a breather before jumping into more souls.
- 51:24 second run will be a lot easier at least, woolie wanting to try arcane while pat wanting faith/dex or quality
- 53:08 balance possibly getting updated when the DLC drops
- 53:31 not dissatisfied with the end. Wanting to see G.R.R.M's notes on this. Malenia used to have more moves and be more aggressive. She used to have a block
- 58:20 its great it turned out well after cyberpunk, and if sekiro counts
- 59:56 noah gervais' video essays on souls games and the 'other ones'. Elden ring and sekiro being opposite ends of a spectrum
- - 1:01:25 woolie preferring custom characters, nioh being the samurai souls

1:03:05 woolie is now on his 4th dualsense controller. Various issues he's had with them

- 1:05:19 pat's own issues with dualsense
- 1:06:13 fixing the deadzone issue while on PC
- 1:07:43 pat wants a clear plastic controller
- 1:08:39 comparing to the xbox elite controller
- 1:09:45 bought the colored one hoping it'll turn out better. The box says purple

1:12:04 starting up dead space. The heaviest boots in the world and cutting off the limbs

- 1:14:12 the most cartoonish dismemberment
- 1:14:52 wasting no time getting you into it. The 2005 to 2010 era of games.
- 1:16:08 the game still looks good. Seen event horizon?
- 1:17:25 upgrading weapons

- 1:18:02 the flamethrower vs. the plasma cutter. The achievement to go through the game with only the cutter

- 1:21:40 the sawblade, these being industrial tools

- 1:23:26 this being a better re5 than re5

- 1:24:43 what enemies have you fought, woolie?

- 1:26:34 the alt-fire. Wanting angling rotation and the line gun

- 1:27:54 the rifle and it's alt fire

- - 1:29:13 pat wishing it was trash

- 1:29:36 you see isaac's face and him not talking. Dead space and making it a multimedia project

- 1:30:40 the church of unitology and the motion comics on the marker

- 1:32:48 gameplay being a simple 'go here,' the zero-g.

- 1:34:38 having unique survival horror tricks

1:36:18 starting mass effect 2. It feeling more like a real video game with actual voice actors. Look, its martin sheen!

- 1:38:03 making blue shepard and not continuing red shepard. Making a hacked save file.

- 1:41:40 a quest that can only be completed by starting a quest in 1 and finishing it in 3

- 1:43:40 shepard with no friends and ME3 falling apart without a party. Not going full paragon/renegade hampers you. That getting changed a bit later.

- - 1:46:09 war readiness in 3

- - 1:47:28 the multiplayer was good tho

- 1:48:33 a couple of other changes. Added some mods. A lot of people upset at the decision to use certain mods.

- - 1:52:08 pat would take an issue with doing some mods in 3, but not in 2

- 1:54:17 ME2 and 3 will probably get the most backseating you'll get. Just like dark souls 2

- - 1:56:08 people playing these games a few times over
- - 1:57:40 force lightning in kotor being the most optimal way
- - 1:59:48 woolie can change it at any time thanks to save editing
- - 2:00:56 pat looking at the class skills mod woolie is using
- 2:03:07 ME3 plays a lot better, but not playing ME for gameplay. Playing for the weird alien interactions
- 2:05:30 understanding the perspective of not having the same experience as many back in the day.
- 2:07:23 mako: GONE. and planet probing. The hammerhead missions.
- 2:09:30 streamlining and ammo types. Also, pat does not want humans on the ship. At all.
- 2:10:39 jacob looks like woolie's brother. Woolie does not plan to smooch jacob.
- 2:12:25 a mod that turns off gender flags for romance. And the waifu wars continues.
- 2:13:55 8% of people went renegade. Renegade playing completely differently in each game.
- 2:16:40 the prompt system
- 2:18:11 xkcd comic: playing a game several years later and a guy popping in to say 'the cake is a lie.'
- 2:19:25 pat wants ME4 to be a turning c-sec officer. So he just wants disco elysium on the citadel
- 2:20:46 pat wants star trek. And ME andromeda is disappointing. Only council races.
- 2:23:31 you can have an all human party, but then why play a sci fi game?
- 2:24:21 the animals line. The races they made for ME is great
- 2:25:48 there's money now. ME2 and getting the gang together
- 2:28:38 going to omega. The Vorch
- - 2:29:50 robots and mercs as enemies

- 2:32:10 there is 1 vorcha with a name

2:32:19 multiversus is out. Wanting local online. Its fun. 2 v 2 is great.

- 2:34:26 pat misses throwing. Some bugs. Rollback is horrible in some matches if the connection is bad. Some balance stuff like with finn. Priority and hitboxes.

- 2:36:56 characters like superman, shaggy, and iron giant where they have a reliable move thts beats out a lot of things. Some people have cooldowns, some dont

- 2:38:42 open beta means a lot of changes are coming. Woolie playing as garnet where he has to deal with move decay while other characters dont suffer as much from it or suffer at all

- 2:41:05 1 v 1 vs. 2 v 2, its meant for 2 v 2. Perks being super important

- 2:44:05 pat wants to see attack decay turned down

- 2:46:05 lebron's kit is interesting. Arya.

- 2:47:27 comparing to strive. Getting into and playing a match in multiversus is a lot faster

- 2:50:45 woolie wants to know how many bad rollback matches are children on wifi

- 2:51:23 the character select, cake having a bunch of unique voice lines. Costumes being unique

- 2:52:50 seems they'll put out a character every 2 weeks

- 2:53:30 can do dailies against a bot

2:55: 02 heads up: next few weeks will be hectic for woolie. He'll be out of town visiting in laws. Sadly wont be at EVO.

PAT

2:57:07 pat has a new chair, a herman miller embody. Pat needing to put it together. It's a great chair. And pat needing to deal with zangief

- 3:00:53 pat got his 15% off. Woolie got his used.

3:01:23 pat got his DNA in a database now. Sending it off to a 23 and me. Genetic traits and possible family.

- 3:02:43 pat was looking forward to an ancestry chart and wondering if he has like 16 bonus siblings. Paige is not related to pat

- 3:03:43 pat is 89% french.the B+ of the french. 9% british. 1% scandinavian and italian. And .1% african. The one drop rule.

- 3:07:25 pat has been playing witcher, live a live, and xenoblade 3. All 3 have british in it. Absolute aggressive british dubbery.

- - 3:10:15 breton accent

- - 3:11:18 city vs. country accents

- 3:11:50 xenoblades british is so british sometimes pat cant understand it. But witcher is weirder at times with the randoms on the street. People that are important have more understandable accents

- 3:14:02 woolie wants a game to have the balls of disco elysium to have a bunch of different accents. Mass effect and kotor's accents

- - 3:17:45 the opportunity to talk to someone about female turians

3:19:13 witcher is still jank. Immediately sequence broke.

3:19:42 xenoblade 3. The start of xenoblade 2 being laid back. Xenoblade 3 is right in there with death and destruction. The beginning is stellar. Are they related or separate?

- 3:22:32 the combat hits what pat likes, side quests aren't burning pat out. The first xenoblade game where the robots look like the ones from xenogears.

- 3:23:45 the only musts: the zohar, and the important thing is red metal and neon green

3:25:55 live a live. Pat cant believe the game came out in 94. Experimental even now in the year 2022. A character select with each character being a genre switch

- 3:31:19 who's behind the remake? And the game is fascinating.feeling robbed the west never got it.

- 3:33:29 woolie is willing to do jrpgs. Would people want to see front mission 3 or FF tactics? And front mission's branches

- - 3:37:50 how good is dragon quest? DQ11 is the ultimate do it but I won't watch it

- - 3:42:06 the JRPG breakdown: does it have voice acting?

- - 3:42:55 pat hoping the FF tactics rerelease will have voice acting

3:45:19 Pat plans to drop XB3 on stream because its so long, but you can check out pat over at patstaresat!
