

CALL FOR STUDENT MOBILITY TO UNIVERSITY OF ALMERIA, SPAIN

The University of Almería (UAL) is a public university situated in Almería, Spain. Located on the shore of the Mediterranean Sea, it belongs to the La Cañada de San Urbano district of Almería City. In 2008, the University offered 38 different degree programmes, with 871 lecturers, and 11,628 students

This call is aimed at participation in the Blended Intensive Programme - Digital Transformation of Agro-Companies.

The objective of the programme is to help current students (future leaders of agro companies) understand the importance of committing to digital transformation and how to carry it out in order to make them much more competitive and sustainable.

Students will:

- Understand that a company needs to increase its digital maturity to be competitive implementing IT governance, digitization and digital transformation initiatives, all together.
- Learn about the main information systems that an agro-company should use to digitize and the emerging technologies available to carry out its digital transformation.
- Learn about success cases of agro-companies from all over the world that have carried out their digital transformation and have become smart agro companies.
- Understand the roadmap to digitally transform itself and will be able to design a set of recommendations to digitally a real company.
