

Privacy Policy

Fyxhuk studio makes the mobile application Polar Catch available free of charge and provides access to it on an "as available" and "as is" basis. This Privacy Policy explains how information may be collected, handled, processed, stored, retained, protected, and otherwise managed when you download, install, access, or use the application. By using Polar Catch, you confirm that you have read, understood, and accepted the practices described in this Policy.

Any information obtained through the application is used exclusively to operate, maintain, support, improve, and develop the Service. We do not sell, lease, trade, or otherwise disclose personal information to third parties except where such disclosure is described in this Privacy Policy or required by applicable laws and regulations. Capitalized terms not expressly defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Terms and Conditions governing the use of Polar Catch.

Information We Collect and Why We Collect It

To provide the features and functionality of the application, Polar Catch may request certain information that can be used to identify an individual. Information voluntarily provided by users may be securely stored and processed in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

The application may also utilize third-party services, tools, or platforms that independently collect and process information. Such third-party components may include, without limitation:

- Google Play Services

Technical and Diagnostic Information

When the application experiences errors, malfunctions, crashes, interruptions, or other technical events, certain technical and diagnostic data may be automatically generated and collected through analytics, monitoring, or reporting mechanisms. This information may include, among other things, IP addresses, device specifications, operating system information, application settings, timestamps, and other technical details relevant to system diagnostics.

Such data is collected solely for purposes including, but not limited to, detecting and correcting technical issues, maintaining service reliability, evaluating application performance, improving stability, and enhancing the overall user experience.

Cookies and Related Technologies

Polar Catch does not directly place or maintain cookies. However, third-party services integrated into the application may employ cookies or similar technologies for operational, analytical, authentication, or security purposes.

Users may manage, restrict, or disable these technologies through the settings available on their devices or browsers. Please be aware that limiting or disabling such technologies may affect certain features, performance levels, or functionality of the application.

Service Providers

We may work with trusted third-party companies, organizations, or individuals to assist in operating, maintaining, enhancing, or supporting the Service. These third parties may perform functions that include, but are not limited to:

- Assisting with application functionality and operations
- Delivering services on our behalf
- Providing customer or technical support
- Analyzing performance and usage patterns

These service providers may have access to information only to the extent necessary to perform their assigned responsibilities. They are expected to maintain the confidentiality of such information and may not use it for purposes unrelated to the services they provide.

Security of Information

We implement reasonable administrative, organizational, and technical safeguards intended to protect personal information against unauthorized access, misuse, alteration, disclosure, destruction, or loss. Nevertheless, no method of electronic transmission or data storage can be considered completely secure, and therefore absolute security cannot be guaranteed.

External Websites and Third-Party Resources

The application may include links to websites, services, or platforms operated by third parties. Because these resources are not owned, controlled, or managed by us, we assume no responsibility for their content, privacy practices, security procedures, or information-handling activities. Users are encouraged to review the privacy policies and terms of any external resources they choose to visit.

Children's Privacy

Polar Catch is not designed for or directed toward children under the age of 13. We do not intentionally collect personal information from children. If we learn that personal information has been submitted by a child through the application, we will take appropriate steps to delete such information as soon as reasonably possible. Parents or legal guardians who believe that a child has provided personal information may contact us to request its removal.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may revise, update, modify, or replace this Privacy Policy from time to time at our sole discretion. Any changes will be made available through the application or other appropriate communication channels. Continued use of the application following the publication of an updated Privacy Policy constitutes acceptance of the revised terms. Unless otherwise stated, changes become effective immediately upon publication.

Effective Date: July 13, 2026
