

Rob sat in the sun.

The rat sat in the mud.

That is a big dog!

I wish they could come here.

We hope they had fun!

The dog had a bath.

Did the duck quack?

Did they have fun?

We will be on the ship.

She has a dog.

He was not sad.

We went to the shop.

This was fun!

Tom was as big as Ron.

She has one cat.

New “trick” word sentences - (or, for):

Do you want this or that?

This book is for you.

The dog likes to go for a run.

Do you like chicks or hens?

Do you like blocks or trucks?

His card is for you.

Has he made the pie for you?

Is my shed big or little?

New “trick” word sentences for April 20-24 - (of, have):

I have a new puppy.

Can he have this mint?

She ran to the top of it.

Of all of the suckers, she likes the blue one.

He will have a new clock.

I have a red sock.

She sits on top of the rock.

Wish her the best of luck!

New “trick” word sentences for April 27-May 1 - (from):

The present is from Tom.

The book is from Meg.

Was this from you?

I have the sack I got from you.

Of all the gifts, I like the one from you.

New “trick” word sentences for May 4-8 - (by):

I did it by myself.

Can you see the duck by the pond?

The book is by me.