

30. One Too Many Mornings - Bob Dylan JOAN BAEZ P1JB)LQW8QCHORDU=DO#+C-1=DO. PIANO=C+1 BB

[Intro] C

[Verse 1]

C Am
Down the streets the dogs are barkin'

F C
And the day is a-gettin' dark

C Am
As the night comes in a-fallin'

F G
The dogs'll lose their bark

C Am
And the silent night will shatter
F C

From the sounds inside my mind

C Am
For I'm one too many mornings

F G C
And a thousand miles behind

[Verse 2]

C Am
From the crossroads of my doorstep,

F C
My eyes they start to fade,

C Am
As I turn my head back to the room

F G
Where my love and I have laid.

C Am
An' I gaze back to the street,

F C
The sidewalk and the sign,

C Am
And I'm one too many mornings

F G C
An' a thousand miles behind.

[Verse 3]

C Am
It's a restless hungry feeling

F C
That don't mean no one no good,

C Am
When ev'rything I'm a-sayin'

F G
You can say it just as good.

C Am
You're right from your side,
F C

I'm right from mine.

C Am
We're both just too many mornings

F G C
An' a thousand miles behind.
