

Introduction

Welcome to D&D Dice Roller Pro! Your privacy is important to us. This Privacy Policy explains how we handle your data when you use our application.

1. No Data Collection

We respect your privacy. D&D Dice Roller Pro is designed to work completely offline and does not collect, store, or share any personal data. Specifically, we:

- Do not collect personal information such as your name, email address, or location.
- Do not track or store your activity within the app.
- Do not use analytics tools to monitor user behavior.
- Do not collect or share any data with third parties.

2. Offline Functionality

This app does not require an internet connection to function. All features are available without the need for Wi-Fi or mobile data, ensuring that your usage remains private and secure.

3. No Third-Party Services

Our app does not integrate with any third-party services, including:

- Advertising networks
- Analytics services
- Social media platforms
- Cloud storage or external servers

4. Permissions

D&D Dice Roller Pro does not request any unnecessary permissions. The app only uses the essential functionality required for dice rolling, ensuring minimal access to your device.

5. Security

Since our app does not collect or transmit any data, there are no security risks related to data breaches, leaks, or unauthorized access. Your activity remains private on your device at all times.

6. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy in the future to reflect any changes in our app. If any modifications are made, the updated Privacy Policy will be available within the app or on our official website.
