Things to Know....

All official rules are posted on the link above.

All examples of the 2018 and 2019 winners are posted in the media center google classroom and on the website above..

The contest is only open to 4th and 5th grade students.

In order to participate:

You must complete the attached storyboard with at least 10 illustrations and 10 text pages.

Once you have a completed storyboard you can come by the media center and receive a blank hardback book for you final draft. ONLY hardback books can be entered.

This project is completed outside of school.

As soon as you have a quality storyboard draft you can turn it in for a blank book.

Mrs. Medlock and Mrs. McConell will be available on December 10th and 12th from 7:30-8:00am to give feedback.

Parents are welcome to assist their child and provide guidance and suggestions.

The contest does allow you work together in up to groups of 4, however you would have to arrange that work time outside of school.

Anyone who works with a partner will split winnings equally.

Books are due to the media center by: January 29th

Timeline:

Storyboard Drafts Available: November 19th in the media center and Mrs. McConell (art).

All FINAL DRAFT books are due to the media center for submission by January 29th.

Each electrical co-op will select their local ($50) winner by February 28th.

One state-wide winner will be announced on Friday, April 11th, 2020.
