

PRETTY GOOD JOB :^)

NOW:

1. ESTABLISH THE SITUATION:

2. WHO ARE YOU?

3. WHY ARE YOU WRITING? (YOU NEED TO FILL A POSITION)

4. HOW DID YOU MEET PETE? WHAT'S YOUR GENERAL IMPRESSION OF PETE?

*NOTE: You must address a counterclaim (what the other side would say)

Then you have to explain that even though this might seem like a good idea, really it's not.

ADD A PARAGRAPH showing the other side. Then dismiss their argument

"SOME PEOPLE MIGHT SAY THAT WE SHOULD HIRE BYRON SMART because . . .

EITHER ADD THE COUNTER-ARGUMENT

AFTER YOUR FIRST ARGUMENT YOU MAKE ABOUT YOUR GUY

OR JUST BEFORE YOUR LAST ARGUMENT FOR YOUR GUY (your last argument/point should be your best one)

BASIC STRUCTURE

1 Intro

2 .First argument/reason to hire

3. Second argument/reason to hire

COUNTERARGUMENTCOUNTER ARGUMENT4.

5. Third argument to hire

6. Conclusion--sum up.

"Hire Byron--you'll never regret it."O

You should hire Pete Domske because he fits all of the criteria in your add for the job. He has strong arms proven by his, impressive, 530 pound bench press. He can also withstand strong odors due to a tragic accident that severed his olfactory nerve, leaving him not able to smell. These things make it pretty easy for him to complete the job or task required of him, because he is strong he can work for along time without getting fatigued and because he has no sense of smell he can work through some bad smells. He is the logical choice for this job because of his work experience, strong arms, no sense of smell, and his passion for manual labor.

I like

Eyyyyy

Pete's cousin Matt Domske showed him the article in the paper in Washington, and Pete being the self starter he is he moved down to salem knowing what he wanted. This shows a lot about Pete, about how he was willing to move somewhere new to get a job that he knew fit him perfectly. EXPLAIN THE IMPORTANCE OF HAVING A wSELF-STARTER AND GENERALLY MOTIVATED WORKER. He also has a fire in his heart of manual labor, realizing after two years of college that he did not want to go anymore and that he has a passion for hard working.

Pete has the arms for the job to, because as you may recall in your ad you placed in the statesman journal you said this job requires someone with strong arms. Pete definitely fits this build of strong arms with his astonishing bench press of 530 pounds. This guy can definitely move around those miniscule cans that don't weigh more than a water bottle to him, moving them with ease. He has been training his whole life so his muscles are used to the wear and tear of a job. You won't have to wait for him to get big arms because he already has them. WAIT. WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO BE ABLE TO MOVE THINGS AND MOVE THEM WITH EASE? EXPLAIN, mention something about money. EX]e2LAIN, EXPLAIN

ADD A PARAGRAPH showing the other side. Then dismiss their argument
SOME PEOPLE MIGHT SAY THAT WE SHOULD HIRE BYRON SMART.

The last point on why pPete is the no brainer WELL SAID for this job is the fact that pete has no sense of smell because of a tragic accident. It happened while he was working hard on the docks when a crane dropped a small crate and it landed on Pete's head lucky for pete he was wearing a hard hat, but he still lost his sense of smell. This is another aspect of why Pete is such a perfect fit for this company. The man has no smell so he can not be bothered by the strong stench of garbage. He will be able to the the full extent of his job without complaining or needing a mask WHY DOES THE BOSS CARE.

So in conclusion Pete Domskey is the perfect fit for your company because of his strong arms, passion for manual labor, self starter, and he has no sense of smell. All of these things you put in your ad and these seemed to be the most important. If Pete is not a perfect model for this ad, then I don't know who would be. He would help your company out a ton and make you filthy rich by how productive and how little time he wastes.
HIRE PETE.

FINISH UP MORE SMOOTHLY