Affiliate Promotion Terms & Conditions

Read carefully before joining this program.

You agree that you are NOT allowed to do the following things if approved for the affiliate program. By doing any of the following, you will be terminated from the program and agree that any commissions will be forfeited without recourse:

1. You are NOT permitted to conduct e-mail promotions in a 3rd party system – all email contacts MUST be your OWN opt in email list. You cannot buy solo ads, use safe lists, use spam or anything similar.
2. You must NOT run “negative” PPC or iframe domain campaigns such as “Product name / author name scam” or any other method to attract controversial click thru rates that an ordinary person would deem to portray a negative view of the product. This creates a very bad image for our company and the individuals featured in the products and you will be terminated from the program instantly.
3. You cannot earn commission on your own purchase. Any ‘self’ purchase commission may be nullified or held back, and we’ll report your account.
4. We run a legitimate business, which means that I always correctly illustrate and represent my product/s and their features and benefits to the customer. Please make sure you do the same. Anyone found using misleading claims, inaccurate information or false testimonials (or anything that does not comply with FTC guidelines) will have their affiliate account revoked immediately.

Can I Use Bonuses From HealthEmpire For Other Affiliate Promotion?

The answer is ABSOLUTELY NO. These bonuses are available exclusively for HealthEmpire promo.

You can’t re-use, re-sell or redistribute all bonuses.

You are not allowed to copy graphics and any other bonus content from HealthEmpire.

We made most of the bonuses from scratch, that’s why we can say that it’s going to help your conversion and help you with the promo.

You are also NOT allowed to reuse, redistribute, or edit our HTML bonus page template to promote any other offers!
