[A4M] [script offer] Trap-Neuter-Return [Rape Zone] [dystopia] [free use society]
[doctor4patient] [JOI] [listener orgasm] [TNR] [hospital] [Under 1K] CW: [crying] [drugging]
[forced sterilization] & mentions [rape]

Summary: In the wake of the Act that legalized rape within the zone, two groups sprang up to deal with the expected result of mass rape: unwanted offspring. One group is government-sanctioned and government-funded, the Population Control Bureau. The other is a group of vigilante anarchists, the Reproduction Liberation Front. Both groups have the same goal; in the Rape Zone, victims and perpetrators are humanely trapped, sterilized, and then returned to their habitat, to prevent unwanted consequences.

Names & endearments: none

Word count: 700

Narrative tone:

1. The speaker is a government-employed doctor, a urologist who specializes in sterilization surgery. The speaker views visitors to the Rape Zone with complete contempt, and that they deserve to be sterilized. The speaker is a firm believer in the work that they do.
2. The listener is somewhere between the ages of 25 and 40. He went to the Rape Zone with his friends to celebrate his bachelor party and doesn't view himself as a rapist. After all, sexual assault is legal in the zone! He is absolutely horrified to learn where he is.
3. During the JOI section, you are writing up your medical chart notes and trying to work. Your tone is distracted and bored. You're not interested in the man jerking off at all.

Formatting notes:

- Paragraph breaks indicate the speaker is pausing.
- Bold italics are used for word emphasis.

(SETTING: a hospital room, morning)

Shh, don't struggle.

I'm just removing your I.V., hold still...and done!

It's alright!

You're going to be okay!

This is very strange, I know.

But you're safe, you're in a secure medical facility.

That's because you've been sedated.

Here, have some water, your throat must be dry.

(GIVE THE LISTENER SOME WATER)

Better?

Good, that should disappear within a few hours, drink plenty of water today and tomorrow.

Actually it's Thursday.

You were detained on Saturday evening and you've been with us ever since.

You're with the P.C.B.

Hey, hey, relax!

It's better us than the Reproduction Liberation Front!

The Pop-Libs would've taken your balls.

We just removed your ability to produce sperm, you've still got everything intact, so calm down.

Really though, try not to move, you'll tear your stitches.

Because you've had surgery.

No, no, we're not organ thieves.

All we did was sterilize you and update your vaccines for HPV, Hep A, and Hep B.

Oh, and we gave you a shot of Ceftriaxone (sef-trai-ak-sown), standard procedure.

We can't have you running around raping people and spreading disease.

No, it's not reversible.

I don't know what you can tell her.

The truth, maybe?

Does she know where this bachelor party occurred?

Because she might not want to marry you after this anyway.

Then you can look into adopting or using a donor.

There were... [CHECKING NOTES] thirty-two unwanted children surrendered to the Male Pressure Mitigation Offspring Division last quarter.

Maybe one of them will be to your liking.

I guess you should have thought of that before spending your bachelor party in the Rape Zone, eh?

Please, save it.

I see guys like you all the time and they all give me the same stories.

"It was my first time!" or "I just came with my friends, I wasn't going to hurt anyone!"

Whether you participated or not, your presence here is still a statement of tacit (ta-suht) support for the Act.

You're supporting Rape Tourism and propping up a system that violates women.

Then you should have thought of that.

Stop crying.

It's not that bad, you can still get hard.

See?

No, your body is just responding slower than normal due to the drugs.

Once they wear off you'll be back to your regular time for responding to stimuli and getting erect.

Do you want me to show you?

(JOI BEGINS)

[CLINICAL, DISINTERESTED]

Take your pants down.

No need to be shy, I've seen it a million times.

Give yourself a rub.

There you go.

Now grip it at the base...mhm, like that.
Start stroking yourself.

See?
Everything's in working order, you're getting hard already.

I don't need to stay for this, no.

Well yes, I am a doctor.
My job, however, is to perform procedures and discharge routines, not watch patients jerk off.
I really don't have time for this.

[ANNOYED]
Fine, just hurry up.
You're getting discharged after this check-up, we need this room for the next patient.

That's confidential.
Don't worry about that, keep touching yourself.

I'm certainly not going to watch you, what type of place do you think this is?

Could you stop talking?
I'm trying to finish your chart notes.

[DISTRACTED BY PAPERWORK]
Soon, eh?
That's good.

Uh-huh.

That's normal, the pain should be gone in a few days.

Uh-huh.

(THE LISTENER ORGASMS)

Good job.

Sure, here's a tissue.

See?
What did I tell you?
Everything still works.

The soreness should be gone by the weekend, I'm prescribing a low-dose painkiller and recommend that you avoid masturbating further until Sunday.

Avoid tight clothing, and avoid exercise too.

Get plenty of fluids and leave the bandage alone, you can take it off on Sunday.

Oh, and don't get it wet, do sponge baths in the meantime.

One last thing, your proof of vaccinations has been uploaded to the central database.

Your physician can request a copy through their office.

Any questions?

Alright, that's all we need to go over, so please, get dressed, and get out.

Your friends?

Go to Reception.

If you provide your I.D. and their full names, the receptionist can let you know if other members of your party are here.

If more of them are here, you can wait in the lobby area.

Once you exit the room, follow the purple arrows on the floor.

You're making this awkward, shoo.

(FADE-OUT)
