Precept & Wise Sayings

Name	Favorite Sayings and Description of Why (you only need to describe one, but list as many as you like, especially ones not listed on the handout)
Jeff	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● If you want to have a happy life, have happy days. ● Live like you are dying. You are. We often hear stories about people who find out that they will die soon and it greatly changes their perspective. They stop ‘sweating the small stuff’ and focusing more on appreciating the many small joys of life and valuing those around them. Why wait until we get such a dire prognosis? We are all dying. It might happen in a day, a year, or a century, but none of us get out alive. As such, we should start appreciating the wonders of life everyday rather than focus on the obstacles, challenges, and frustrations.
Jihun	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The greater danger for most of us is not that our aim is too high and we miss it, but that is too low and we reach it. ● If you have more than five goals, you have none. ● A small change can make a big difference. ● The best way to predict the future is to create it. ● The moment you think that your destiny is predetermined, you become a miserable loser! Trust your own power so that you can shape your own destiny! I, personally, don’t believe the fatalism because it would be dull if everything had already been predetermined. Even if I cannot predict the future, I can draw a blueprint how I will look like in the future and follow the road heading to my dream life. I would like to say to those who donate their money to the fortune teller, “Don’t waste your money for the sweet flattery to be satisfied for a short time. Invest in yourself to have a wonderful future life.”
Youngsoo	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Your deeds are your monuments. What I make is makes me and my reputation. Works that I did before frame my habits and the habits frame my whole life. In Korean adages, there is ‘if someone didn’t ignite a stove, there is no smoke above a chimney’. All consequences have more than one reason. Our monuments, too.
Jiyeon	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Everything in your world is created by what you think. ● Strong reasons make strong actions ● Laughter is the closest distance between two people. ● Only I can change my life. No one can do it for me. ● No one can live my life for me. If I want to live differently, I have to change myself. Nobody can spoon feeding me. Life is what I make of it, so don’t lean on the help of a friend or family or other people. Do not let someone leading your life, My life is mine. Only you can lead and change your life.
YunYeji	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The goal is not to be better than the other people, but to be better than you were yesterday.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● A dream dreamt alone remains merely a dream, Only when we dream together can this dream come true. ● One extra degree makes all the difference. ● Soon, it shall also come to pass. ● One dream, One chance, dreams do come true. ● If you have a dream, you could build a house downwards from the sky. : I thought I lack my abilities and resources to realize my dream, so, I gave up dreaming. It might sound like sad, but it is realistic decision. However, I could dream because of this saying. "If you have a dream, you could build a house downwards from the sky." This saying encouraged me that you can do it. Of course, I can continue to dream, when I get a great longing. Therefore, I have been dreaming of achieving my dream again and again since middle school. I can't say that I'm close to my dream now, but I still hope it, and I'm expecting that I will accomplish it.
Claire	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The best way to predict the future is to invent it. ● No one can make you feel inferior without your consent. ● A good traveller has no fixed plans and is not intent on arriving. ● Comparison is the thief of joy I thought this sentence is totally truth, we always look on the things that we don't have, and continue compare with others. We envy that why he/she has better grade, lovely family....., once we just feel empty and can't look on the bright side, we won't become joyful anymore.
JungHwan Noh	“It's impossible to love someone and control them at the same time.” by Terry Crews Yes, we've all been there trying to control someone you love but have we succeeded even just for once? None, yet every single moment when we get frustrated by the very fact that your loved ones are the most difficult ones to steer, this every moment is a little class where you learn to accept them as the way they are, so you can love them in the end. My father and I have never gone along well. We diverged long ago. We would fight over the littlest thing, but everytime we fought to control each other, little by little we could learn how to accept each other. I have learned Crews' saying from my past experience, that's why I choose it.
Jonghoo	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Life is a tragedy when seen in close-up, but a comedy in long-shot. - Charlie Chaplin ● Nothing is permanent in this wicked world - not even our troubles. - Charlie Chaplin ● What do you want a meaning for? Life is a desire, not a meaning. - Charlie Chaplin ● Cock your hat - angles are attitudes. - Frank Sinatra I like almost every wise saying of Charlie Chaplin and I especially like the first and second ones on the list. Even it is a bitter, sorrowful reality I am enduring now, it will disappear soon. It is just a moment and - related to the first saying, - it will be left as a tolerable pain. Every piece of anguish will be scarved as a scar and they will be shown as cool tattoo to others. I don't have to think that I'm always in trouble. It will pass and the fog will soon lift.
Jongseok	Anger as soon as fed is dead- 'Tis starving makes it fat.

	I've tried to keep my temper even though I took offense because I have thought that it is better way to maintain good relationships, but it is not. As getting older, I figured out that it makes my life ruin because I can't do naturally within a sour mood, so it can disturb to maintain good relationships with people near me. Ever since then, I try to say my mood when I feel down because of someone.
HyeanJi	- The goal is not to be better than the other people, but to be better than you were yesterday. - "It's not enough to be friendly. You have to be a friend." —Charlotte I think to understand human is difficult because people are complex beings. People don't want to feel lonely, but sometimes want to be alone. In this situation, we need real friends or someone who know about you and can be together although any conversation and talk. Therefore, to be friendly is different to be friend. We all need real friend. Secondly, comparing myself with other make low self-pride. Making better day is better to yourself.
MinYI	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Nothing will work unless you do. ● Only those who dare to fail greatly can ever achieve greatly. We can easily plan our goals, but without doing, plan is still a plan. Time is still going, when you are still planning. We should do what we plan to do immediately. Don't scare of failure, because no one can success without fail. If we stop because one failure, we can never reach the end. Try to embrace failure and find the solution in it. Then, we will get stronger than before and get closer to our goals.
Suji	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Comparison is the thief of joy. ● No one can make you feel inferior without your consent. ● We must all face the choice between what is right and what is easy. ● However difficult life may seem, there is always something you can do and succeed at. – Stephen Hawking. We are often dismayed by our inability. Especially, this happens when I can't do what others easily do. I often make mistakes because of my carelessness. I usually try again and then succeed, but sometimes there are things you can't do well every time you try. Those who succeed say that there is nothing that is done if you try hard and they have failed greatly. However, I don't have the guts that they said and I don't want that much success. Everyone has an own bowl, so I think I should keep on doing what I do well and sometimes I should give up even though I try so hard.
Jeekwang	Heaven helps those who help themselves. I think luck is a skill or ability. People who don't try for their goal, can't get a good luck. According to my experience when I had tried all endeavor for my goal, unexpected luck came to me. The only one common thing among people those who won a lottery is that they bought the lottery. I think coincidence is just natural, but luck is something that I have to create myself. Good luck comes to me when I try, I think it is that heaven helps my endeavor.
Heejeong	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● No one can make you feel inferior without your consent. ● Don't waste your time with explanations: people only hear what they want to hear.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Find a job that you love doing and you will never have to work a day in your life. Many people have jobs but do not have fun. People who work with joy are probably doing what they really enjoy , have fun and want to do. One must do what one likes to get motivated. It is very fortunate to do what he or she loves. They do not just work, they just do what they like and it might not feel like they are working at that time. Therefore, because people have to have a lifetime job, they should do what they like. I will also look for a job that I can really enjoy in my life after I graduate from college. woorim	All life is an experiment. The more experiments you make the better. I think experiment is very important for me. Although people say doing something is very good but I don't do something, I don't know how it is good, and experiment teach well than others, so I like the wise.
christine	The man who has made up his mind to win will never say "impossible " A strong man will struggle with the storms of fate.(Thomas Addison) For me, nothing is impossible, I can do anything if I want, so I never believe there are something really unattainable! Just like Addison said, if you strong enough you can overcome any difficulty!

노희정	Although I can not tell the exact story of the movie, it was very interesting and the twist at the end of this movie was impressive. All of us were so hungry that we ate the barbeque like a few days' hunger. we hadn't eaten in days.
노수지	I love to put too much pepper on and listen to the sound of grinding it. Finally, I fried it all with pasta noodle and mixed it with vegetables that my mom likes. These vegetables are eaten in spring.
노정환	Comparing myself to those fanatics —however, at which point I wasn't so sure about their insanity. After all, how do we know if they are wrong or we are right?— wasn't a pleasant thing to do, but that was just the reality that I was responsible for.
장현지	When I washed using warm water, I felt like I was in a hot spring.
Christine	The road had such steep ups and downs that I felt like I was on a roller coaster.
