Borough President Gale Brewer Tweet

Tonight's "Deep Breath Moment": Residents of Hell's Kitchen transformed a vacant storefront into a free store to help members of the community. The Hell's Kitchen store, organized by Chana Widawski and Bailey Sperling, offers small items such as books, unused toiletries, and other small household items available 24/7. Free stores have been popping up in New York City and the newly opened Hell's Kitchen storefront is another example of the compassion of New Yorkers.
