

Attention Mission

Google, Youtube

"The Real World" ads by Andrew Tate caught my attention initially due to his straightforward speaking style. His vivid descriptions of "The Matrix" have also captured the interest of many young people, myself included.

Instagram

Woman's shoe ads show discounts inside the ads, I'm not interested in the ads but I believe they will catch a lot of attention from the woman.

AliExpress

I often receive email sequences from AliExpress, and every time I see them, I am eager to open the app again because of their excellent headlines.
