

TheTrinaCam Snapchat Information and Rules

Definitions:

Public Snapchat- The free content I post onto my public Snapchat story.

Premium Snapchat- Content subscription tiers that customers pay for to access.

Lifetime Snapchat- A subscription tier available to purchase for a limited time that promises access to Premium Snapchat for as long as I am active on Snapchat, which is a minimum of three years of regular content.

Exclusive Snapchat- A subscription tier that is available for those who pay an additional $20 onto any tier they've purchased.

Snap- A single picture or 10-second video I upload to Snapchat.

General Information and Rules

- 18+ only
- I do not guarantee responses to anyone who tries to message me on Snapchat. This includes dick pics. If you want a two-way conversation, contact me on SextPanther.
- I will absolutely not tolerate harassment or threats on public or premium Snapchat. I will block your account with no warning. Any warnings are acts of kindness on my part. You will receive no refunds if you paid for premium. (See the Refunds sub-section below.)
- Do not give me unsolicited feedback on my looks or business. Doing so may result in you getting blocked. If you paid for premium Snapchat, no refund will be provided. (See the Refunds sub-section below.)
- I will block non-paying subscribers who send more than one dick snap a week. Only one warning will be given. Just because there's this once-a-week dick snap rule doesn't mean I want to see your dick; I'll merely tolerate it. If you're a paying subscriber, even though I will accept dick snaps more frequently, it still means I'm just tolerating them.

Unless I'm paid $5 each time, I will skip through everyone's dick videos. Pay a one-time $50 fee, and you can send all of the dick snaps you want. Dick ratings will be $10 each, and will consist only of one message from me. None of these services include on-going conversation with me. Per the second rule above, any two-way conversation must be through SextPanther - there you can send me as many dick pics as you please.

- All Snapchat updates will be posted on Snapchat and Twitter. If you can't access my Snapchat, go to my Twitter.
- If you need to personally contact me, email is the best way: thornforever@gmail.com

Public Snapchat

As long as TheTrinaCam is operational, I will post content onto my public story. I cannot guarantee frequency.

Screenshots are only allowed with my public snaps. If you post them on another platform, please credit me along the lines of: TheTrinaCam on Snapchat

You may not resell any of my snaps without permission. Posting on a website with ad revenue is fine, but I expect to be credited as mentioned above.

Snapchat Subscription

In February of 2019, I will launch a premium subscription to which paying customers can receive access to.

Screenshots are not allowed whatsoever with my premium Snapchat. Consider warnings to be acts of kindness on my part, as I may block you with no refunds without any warning.

Each month is guaranteed at 20 snaps or more, plus at least one video show, which will consist of multiple video snaps displaying a single scene.

Because I have to manually add your information to my Snapchat, there may be some time between when you pay and when you will be able to access my premium Snapchat. If you pay through a platform that does subscriptions, your subscription will "end" based on the time of when I added you. For example, if you paid on March 1st, but I didn't add you until March 4th, and you decided to end your description before you were charged again on June 1st, you would still be able to see my premium Snapchat until June 4th.

If you pay with a tip, you will not be eligible for multiple products. (For example, if you buy a video on MFC Share that is the same amount as a subscription tier, it means that you have only purchased the video and not access to my premium Snapchat.)

Prices

- One month: $20
- Three months: $50
- Six months: $80
- One year: $150

If you bought during the February 2019 Special and are an ongoing customer with the same subscription tier, these prices will apply for you as long as you continuously subscribe. You have five days from after your subscription ends to re-subscribe and have the Special prices in place. If it has been over five days, your right to the Special prices gets revoked.

Discounts

If you purchase my premium Snapchat with an Amazon giftcard, you get a $5 discount for tiers below $100, or $10 off the yearly subscription.

If you buy subscriptions with Membershpy, you will get a $2 discount for each tier below $100, then $5 off for the yearly subscription.

Lifetime Snapchat

I acknowledge that models and performers retracting their promises for lifetime subscriptions are pervasive in this industry. As long as I have an active camgirl Snapchat, I will fulfill what was agreed upon.

I do not believe in the sustainability of offering a lifetime subscription. Nevertheless, I did offer Lifetime Snapchat during my Valentine's 2019 Special. While I have no plans of retirement in the near future, I guarantee three years of regular content. After retirement, I may be open to offering lifetime subscriptions again, but I cannot say to the frequency of posting.

Exclusive Snapchat

On top of your normal subscription tier, regular-priced or discounted, you can pay an additional $20 for access to the exclusive subscription. (No discounts available for this option.) You will receive at least an additional 20 snaps per month, and I will be taking requests, although I will not guarantee fulfillment of all requests. Every exclusive snap I send out will be given to all exclusive members.

You can pay for this subscription with an Amazon giftcard, cryptocurrency, platform tips, GiftRocket, or through AdmireMe.vip, where you will be charged for both premium and exclusive Snapchat.

Verify Your Purchase

There are two ways to verify your purchase with me:

1. On the platform with notes connected to your purchase, please send me your Snapchat username, subscription tier (if that's not already specified in the purchase), and, optionally, your email address.
2. Message me on Snapchat with a confirmation or other unique code provided to you (that I also have access to) - be sure to specify the website - so I can match it.

In both instances, I would highly appreciate if you could send an email address you wouldn't mind me potentially contacting in the future. This is optional. (I won't accept phone numbers, WhatsApp, Kik, etc.) Telling me which site you paid on will make everything go smoother since I can't check all of the platforms on a constant basis.

On my end, I will need to verify that I have actually received the payment to combat fake email receipts, wasted time, and so on. If you are insistent that you paid for premium via a certain platform but I don't see it on my end, please contact the platform's own support. Otherwise, I will assume that you are trying to scam me out of free content.

Referral Program

For each month a person you refer buys my premium Snapchat, you will receive the same amount of months for free. If Jason tells Bob about my premium Snapchat, Bob buys one month, then Jason gets one month for free. If Bob buys three months, then Jason also gets three months for free.

I will be verifying referral information. One of the best ways to get a referral verified is if the person buy adds me through a mention you posted on Snapchat. Another good way to verify a referrer is if the person referred tells me the other's Snapchat username.

Rules must be abided by both the referrer and person referred. If the person who was referred breaks the rules, then is purged from the program, the referrer will have the rest of the month taken away from their unpaid subscription, being (temporarily) removed from my premium Snapchat if that was the only month they received from this referral program.

Being a successful referrer does not grant you any special privileges other than being able to view my premium Snapchat. All of the rules still apply. Unlike paid subscribers, you may not send dick snaps more than once per week. No matter how many people you referred and how many months of premium Snapchat you earned, I will block you if you send dick snaps too frequently.

For the best results, you may want to consider referring people to platforms where subscribers are automatically charged after an allotted amount of time. Of the platforms I use, these include FanCentro, Membershyps, and SideDaddy.

Refunds

Refunds will only be given if my account is suspended or if I plan to retire early. (Read the Retirement sub-section below).

If you tip the wrong amount or buy the wrong subscription, I will not provide you with access to my premium Snapchat until the full amount is paid. (For example, if you tip $5 on SextPanther for one month of premium Snapchat, I will not grant you access until you pay $15 more.) If you refuse to pay what more I am owed, you forfeit what you have already paid. If you overpay, first we will see if the platform can give you a partial refund. If not, I will provide a partial refund using an Amazon giftcard.

Disobeying my rules, especially ones about threats or harassment, will result in no refunds at all with no other considerations. Not liking my content or quitting Snapchat aren't legitimate reasons for me to provide refunds.

If you made a new Snapchat account and want access to my premium again or want a refund instead, I will need to verify that you are the same customer. If I see your previous username viewing my content, I will block both accounts with no refunds.

I will only pay refunds with Amazon giftcards or cryptocurrency, unless the platforms the customer used to pay have viable methods of refunding.

Retirement

I have no foreseeable plans to retire, but when I plan to retire:

- I may continue to post public content afterwards, but it is no guarantee;
- I will give at least three months advance notice;
- You have until two months from my retirement day to request a partial refund or other content/service in exchange for what was already paid;
- If you do not make such requests in the allotted time, you will forfeit what you already paid;
- Only the request needs to be made within the two months of retirement; while I will do my best to deliver within a reasonable time, I am still liable to the requester after the two months.

I have no plans to create other camgirl Snapchat accounts. The only reason I would do so is as a back-up in case my main one is suspended. If that is the case, paid subscribers may receive full or partial refunds based on their case, whether or not I move to another Snapchat account. (Read the Refunds sub-section above.)

Record-keeping

I will keep a document that details this information about past and current paid subscribers:

- Snapchat username
- Email (if provided)
- Subscription purchased
- Method of payment

- Date(s) of enrollment
- Date(s) of unsubscribing (if applicable)
- Reason for eviction (if applicable)
- General notes

This information will be kept to remind certain subscribers about purchasing another round and to help clear up any disputes. Individuals may request my notes on them (with the exception of general notes), but no one other than myself will have access to the information of others. However, if there is a dispute, I may show the individual's notes to a third party, whether they act as a mediator or to publicize the foul actions of the individual. The notes themselves will never be aired publicly.

I will take screenshots of content from Snapchat if it is information I know I will need a reminder of in the future or to provide evidence of foul behavior. Screenshots may also be taken of compliments to post on my public Snapchat story and other social media - usernames will be concealed.

Conflict Disputes and Resolution

As of now, I only trust MemberBlasts with conflict resolution.

To contact them, DM them on Twitter or email: MemberBlasts@gmail.com
