

Stick's Patreon Terms of Service

By becoming a patron for Stick's Patreon, you agree to the following rules and guidelines listed below:

1) In regards to becoming a patron, I understand that:

- Any monetary issues are my responsibility, not Stick or Patreon, and they reserve the right to remove my pledge if such issues arise.
- I am able to view early art, WIPs, and finished works before they are posted publicly and will respect the rule of no sharing before they are posted.
- My pledge may be dropped by Stick at any time with no repercussions.
- I can drop my pledge at any time, with no repercussions and any perks and benefits I have, will last until the end of the next pledge cycle..
- In pledging to Stick's Patreon, I am supporting his drawings, thus, I have the right to make suggestions or vote for the "lady of the month" polls.
- I am entitled to ask questions about my pledge and perks, and correspondence will follow promptly.

2) In regards to Stick, I understand that:

- They will NOT draw any feral content funded through this Patreon. However, Anthropomorphic versions of existing feral characters are fine. (Dixie from Fox and the Hound 2, Maggie from Home on The Range, Jenna from Balto) Any suggestions of real animals/people will not be accepted/tolerated.
- They will create content with feedback and suggestions from their pledges on Patreon.
- They have other commission work that may temporarily take priority over Patreon content.
- They will do their best to create content that satisfies your tastes and the tastes of others.

3) What to expect + Pledge Perks:

- Art created through Patreon will be voted on by patrons, from a selection of choices made by the community and curated by Stick.
- The most voted choice for each poll will be completed within the pledge month.
- Pledge Perks may be added and removed at any time, with a warning, and may be modified to suit everyone's needs.

THANK YOU!
