The chest

I opened my eyes and I had no idea where I was, and I realized I was on an island.

I explored a little bit until I found a cave. Inside, there was gold inside the chest. I caught the chest but I can't take it home.

Later I found pirates who wanted to catch my chest. They hit me to get the gold and they left with the treasure.

After a month some fishermen rescued me.

This story, I'll never forget.
