Airport & Train

Graz has an international airport :-)) just outside the city which connects the city to several transportation hubs like Frankfurt, Düsseldorf, Munich or Vienna. Regular bus shuttles and a local train service provide easy transport to and from the airport. Taxis from the airport to the city center cost around 30 Euros. Vienna Airport has a direct train (<https://www.oebb.at/en/>) and bus (Flixbus) connection to Graz as well. The central train station of Graz is well-connected to the city centre by public transports.

Travel within the city

The central train station of Graz is well-connected to the city centre by public transports (tram and bus lines respectively). The city of Graz itself is not very big, with most sights and accommodation options situated in the city centre or connected through the dense network of tram and bus lines.

The weekly ticket for public transport in Graz costs 14,80 Euro, with several cheaper options for shorter periods being available. Bus-Bahn-Bim-App: <https://verkehrs Auskunft.verbundlinie.at/>.

F2F meeting

The F2F meeting is at the Centre for Information Modelling (Elisabethstraße 59/III). The closest tram stop is “Tegetthoffplatz”, tram line 1 in direction “Mariatrost” when you come from the city centre (e.g. Jakominiplatz or Hauptplatz).
