The First Flight

Verse 1	Verse 2	Verse 3	Verse 4	Verse 5
Packed my bag and zipped it tight Window seat	Wheels lift off, a sudden climb	Mountains shrinking far below Sky so wide,	Didn't blink, just took it in	Didn't know what I would see First flight and morning light

Felt the shift in space and time with light aglow

New adventures can begin feeling—wild and free
