Lesson Proper	Duration	Activities
	5 minutes	Introduction Begin the lesson by discussing the importance of community awareness and compassion in promoting sustainable development. Engage students in a brief conversation about what these concepts mean to them and why they are essential for a thriving society.
	10 minutes	Icebreaker Activity To set a positive tone for the lesson, have students participate in a "Compassion Chain" activity where they write acts of kindness they have witnessed or experienced on paper links and connect them to create a chain, symbolizing the interconnectedness of compassion in a community.
	8 minutes	Multimedia Exploration Show a short video or presentation highlighting real-life examples of communities coming together to support sustainable development through acts of compassion. Discuss the impact of these actions on both individuals and the community as a whole.
	8 minutes	Small Group Discussion Divide students into small groups and provide them with discussion questions related to the video/presentation. Encourage them to share their thoughts on how compassion can drive sustainable development and ways they can contribute to their own community.

CATCH-UP FRIDAYS TEACHING GUIDE

(FOR VALUES, PEACE, AND HEALTH ED)

	5 minutes per group	Group Presentation Each group presents their key takeaways from the discussion to the class. Encourage creativity and critical thinking in their presentations.
Class Reflection	2 minutes	Facilitate a brief class reflection on the main points discussed during the lesson. Encourage students to share any new insights or questions they may have.
Conclusion and Homework Assignment	2 minutes	Summarize the lesson by emphasizing the importance of compassion in building sustainable communities. Assign students to research and prepare a short presentation on a community project that promotes sustainable development through compassion for the next class.
		Suggested Activity for Reading Enhancement: Word Classification Game: Have students categorize words related to community awareness and sustainable development into different groups based on their meanings or themes. Making Predictions: Encourage students to predict outcomes or solutions based on the context of a given reading passage related to compassion and sustainable development.
