

S2 Harold H. Russell

Location - West-N: R15, C18

Harold H. Russell

Harold H. "Doc" Russell, 84, Oshkosh, died Sunday morning in Theda Clark Regional Medical Center, Neenah.

He was born Jan. 12, 1898, in Algoma, the son of Judd and Mary Elizabeth Acker Russell. He married Agnes Horn, who died in 1938. He married Margaret Hansen, who died April 22, 1976.

Mr. Russell was employed at Race Office Supply as a clerk. A Navy veteran of World War I, he was past president of the Oshkosh Eagles and was a member of the Eagles 40-Year Club. He was secretary of the Monday Major Bowling League and was a charter member of the Bowling Hall of Fame.

Surviving are one son, Hugh, Madison; one sister, Ivy Wiedemann, Oshkosh; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

HAROLD H RUSSELL

US NAVY

WORLD WAR I

JAN 12 1898

SEP 5 1982

Harold H. Russell

Harold H. "Doc" Russell, 84, Oshkosh, died Sunday morning in Theda Clark Regional Medical Center, Neenah.

He was born Jan. 12, 1898, in Algoma, the son of Judd and Mary Elizabeth Acker Russell. He married Agnes Horn, who died in 1938. He married Margaret Hansen, who died April 22, 1976.

Mr. Russell was employed at Race Office Supply as a clerk. A Navy veteran of World War I, he was past president of the Oshkosh Eagles and was a member of the Eagles 40-Year Club. He was secretary of the Monday Major Bowling League and was a charter member of the Bowling Hall of Fame.

Surviving are one son, Hugh, Madison; one sister, Ivy Wiedemann, Oshkosh; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. in Konrad Funeral Home, the Rev. Thomas Asuma officiating. Burial will be in Lake View Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the funeral home today from 6 to 8 p.m., with Eagles services at 7 p.m.

A memorial has been established.