

Is adventure calling you to grab your tux and gown and head off into rugged landscapes to say “I Do”? Jaira + Daniel certainly answered the call when they decided to plan their Pre-Covid micro wedding in Iceland! Frost and Fire (which totally sounds like it came right out of Game of Thrones!) is a boutique hotel that offers breathtaking views of the valleys, hills and hot springs of Southern Iceland. J + D were 100% on board for the Icelandic experience when they hiked down to a misty waterfall for their newlywed session. We'll let them share why they decided that a destination wedding was perfect for them:
