
Preamble

Whereas The current constitutional language on arrests seems to suggest arresting a person to make them into a judge of a competent court

(§2.5. The lawful suppression, detention, mute, or arrest for the purposes of bringing a person before a competent court to preside over a criminal trial. Are you arresting people so that they can preside over a trial?);

Be it enacted by the Senate of SimDemocracy:

Arrests Amendment

S. B. 1

§1. Replace Article 22 §2.5 of the Constitution with the following text:

“§2.5. The lawful suppression, detention, mute, or arrest prior to a criminal trial before a competent court.”
