"Communication is fundamental to children's development; children need to be able to understand and be understood. Communication is the foundation of relationships and is essential for learning, play and social interaction." -All Together Now Org.

Welcome to the speech-language landing page for JVES! If your child is on an IEP and receives speech-language intervention services, you're in the right place. This page offers general information for my students on IEPs and their families, including special updates, resources, and other information regarding intervention services.

Want to make a referral for a speech-language screener or evaluation for your child or one of your students? Click on the link below to complete a Google Form that will be sent directly to me!
