Infused Classroom Tips for Remote Learning with Tanya Avrith and Holly Clark - 058

In this episode, Tanya Avrith and Holly Clark share tips for creating an infused classroom while teaching remotely. They share strategies for using Microsoft Education's tools, integrations with other EdTech favorites, and stories from their experience supporting educators with distance learning.

Introduction

Hello there! My name is Monica Burns, I'm a former classroom teacher and now I spend my time sharing tips, strategies and activity ideas to make EdTech integration easier in your classroom. You may be familiar with my books, like Tasks Before Apps or my blog ClassTechTips.com. Whether we've met at a conference or special event, you've followed along with my EdTech tips for years, or simply joining in for the first time today, I'm so glad you're here!

You can head to my website classtechtips.com/podcast for all of the show notes. That's where you'll find the transcript for each episode, links to resources, and any of the free downloads I mention.

Promotion/Reminder

We've pushed it back one week, but next week on the podcast I'll take you through my new Quick Reference Guide on Classroom Technology Tips that was just published by ASCD. Head over to classtechtips.com/books if you want to take a look!

Today's Intro

This week's podcast is titled: Infused Classroom Tips for Remote Learning with my guests Tanya Avrith and Holly Clark. With many schools tackling remote learning challenges, over the next few weeks you'll hear from educators who are trying out new teaching strategies and adapting to distance learning. In addition to my normal, quick episodes with classroom tips, you'll see a few episodes pop up like this one with more in depth interviews. Let's dive into the interview!

So let's make this EdTech easy...

If you want to try out some of the infused classroom strategies here are quick tips.

1. Determine your "why" for using technology
2. Take stock of what is already working as a foundation
3. Decide what you can layer on to provide value
4. Reflect and share your experience

If you want to grab Tanya and Holly's new book, I've added it to the shownotes for this episode (classtechtips.com/podcast) or you can search for The Microsoft Infused Classroom wherever you listen to podcasts.
