

Adventures in a New World

Episode 5 - Quiet Falls Part 2: Short History

Back at the truck as AppleJack and Rainbow Dash slid the heavy container at the back of Fred's pickup truck. "Woowee.. that is one heavy tool ya just bought Fred." AppleJack commented as she held her shoulder circling her arm.

"Yeah, mighty thanks for hauling it to the ole girl." He smirked as he patted his truck. "Speaking of which, where in tarnation is your smart friend?"

Rainbow groaned "I'll go get her." She gave an annoyed expression as she walked across the street towards the library where her nerdy friend was currently in.

The teenage boy sat himself next to the purple haired girl. Smiling, "You want to know a story about this town? I can tell you."

"That will be nice, please tell me." She smiled and rest her head on her hands.

And David began with his tale.

-David's Narration -

It was long ago during the early years of this town, as the Merriwether family just settled in. Their fellow travelers began constructing the early buildings in the land. Watching their friends working hard from their new to be built home. One day they were confronted by a lone man. A farmer by the name of Luther Julius. "I own a stretch of land by over yonder." He pointed to the south "I expect ya city folk don't go tainting ma land ya hear?"

The couple chuckled at his 'friendly warning. "Don't worry 'friend', we won't. Your farmland will be safe as long as we breathe." Matthew Merriwether proudly said. With that they befriend one another, their relationship mutual. Luther provide the early townfolk with supplies and the town grew, prosper. Luther and his family started the trade industry with help from the Merriwether couple, sharing the income. Even after their passing, the Merriwether and Julius family grew and for generations so did both the town and the farmland. The town later became a famous tourist location that we always keep a couple of houses open for rent for those travellers/foreigners who wish to stay for a couple of months or so. Many enjoy their holidays in our quiet little town of Quiet Falls.

-End Narration-

"Houses for Rent huh? hmmm.." Twilight rubbed her chin in deep thought only to be broken by an audible 'pst' sound, she looked up to see her two friends AppleJack and Rainbow Dash.

“So, reading with your new boyfriend?” Dash softly teased with a grin. Only to get nudged in the side from Applejack. “Ow, I was only kidding.”

“Fred is waiting Twi, are ya done? We need to get back to the town.” AppleJack explained. “Sorry mate, we need to get our friend.”

“Sorry girls, lost track of time.” Twilight apologized meekly only to stand up and walked up to the shelves to returned the books. “Bye David, I would like to hear your stories some other time?”

Twilight accompany her friends outside, once out she received a nudge from Dash. “You sly girl.” She grinned.

Twilight blushed deeper “It’s not that, I just met him. Besides he seemed to know a lot about the short history of this town. And you know me-”

“Ya want to learn more. One of these days Twilight, your brain will be lost in all those dang books.” AppleJack cut her off.

“Nothin to it Twi, Ah am a busy girl. Ah leave all that math stuff to ya or Big Mac.” She crossed her arms and rolled her eyes. as she crossed the street towards Fred’s parked truck.

“Hey girls, ready to head back?” He asked, getting nods as replies.

Before Twilight entered the passenger seat, she looked back at her friends. “Meet me in the barn with Rarity, Fluttershy and Pinkie later. I would like to discuss a few things.”

“Gotcha, see ya then sugarcube.” AppleJack replied with a thumbs up as she and Dash hopped onto the back with Fred’s purchase.

Twilight entered the passenger side. “So what did you talk to your friends about?” Fred asked as he start the vehicle.

“Nothing much, just girl stuff.” She replied with a smile as they drove back to the barn.

On the main road towards the farmland, Dash leaned forward “I wonder what will be the meeting about?” She pondered.

“Beats me. But ah reckon it’s important that Twilight wants us all to listen in. Ah bet it has to do with the Doc’s progress or somethin about the town.” She replied as her hat is tilted to cover her eyes from the bright afternoon sun. Dash only shrugged and rest back as they enjoyed the rest of the trip back to the farm.

They were met by the warm greetings from Rarity and Fluttershy. Twilight exited the passenger side and walked over to them and gave a warm group hug. "Welcome back darlings, we got some news for you from the good Doctor." Rarity spoke up.

"Same here, meet me in the barn later. Have you seen Pinkie anywhere?"

AppleJack hopped off, Dash pulled the box of Fred's purchase and with AppleJack's help carried it into the house. "We'll look for her when we finished putting away Fred's new toy." Rainbow said with a slight chuckle.

Fred followed "It ain't a toy little missy, be careful with it." He snickered as he opened the door for them.

"So, see you in the barn. Let's start the meeting when everyone is there." Twilight instructed as she walked to the barn with her two friends following suit.

Later, inside the barn, Twilight sat on a haystack as her other two friends sat on other stacks next to her. They set up the meeting spot by positioning six haystacks in a circle, the other 3 stacks remain empty until Rainbow Dash and AppleJack entered and walked up to them. "Pinkie said she'll be here." Rainbow reported.

"That's alright. Sit down girls, when Pinkie decide to stop trying to surprise us and get down already. So we can start our meeting."

A disappointed 'aww' can be heard as the Pink haired girl drops down from the overhead beams. "How did you know?" She pouted.

"We know you far too long Pinkie." Twilight smirked, clearing her throat to get their attention. "Sit down everyone. We have things to discuss, first order of business. Rarity and Fluttershy has some news from the Doctor. Ladies." She beckoned for her friends.

Rarity stood up "There are good news, and bad news."

"I don't like the sound of that." Rainbow commented.

"As I was saying. Good news is the Doctor is certain he can fix his problem. Bad news; it might take a month or two."

"WHAT?!" Dash shouted standing up. A mixture of anger and shocked written on her face.

"Settle down sugarcube." AppleJack pulled her friend back down on her seat.

"Calm down girls." Twilight spoke up. "This is unsettling news indeed. And we can't live with Fred for too long. It won't be right, however I have some news on my own."

"What is it Twilight?" Rarity asked

"The town nearby, Quiet Falls is renting out houses. We can rent one for all of us." Twilight concluded.

"And pray tell how we get the money for that? I know our Equestrian bits won't work in this world." Dash asked.

"Simple, we get jobs in town. All of us, so we get enough. The Doctor might like to move with us too." Twilight replied.

"For one, I liked the idea of working. I hope they hire a seamstress such I." Rarity said.

"Umm, I wonder if I can get a job helping animals." Fluttershy said.

"I can't fly so, I don't know if they have a job for me. Plus working too hard isn't my style." Rainbow said.

"That is what you do all day Dash." AppleJack commented with a smirk causing Dash to glare.

"Working for Fred is good n all but ah'm sure I can be of use in the town." AppleJack continued.

"Ohh, I will try to get hired in a bakery or party store~" Pinkie excitedly said.

"Fred has been nice to us all, so it's only fair. We need a place on our own. I'll be working for the library if they are hiring. If not, I'll try to find something." She smiled.

"Rarity, can you go thank Fred on our behalf and tell him we'll be renting a house in place."

"Ok, darling." She nodded and headed out.

"AppleJack, Rainbow Dash. With me, we'll go tell the Doctor our plan. He could be of help to us." She said standing up and started to walk out with the girls following her. "Pinkie, while we're out. Behave." She giggled.

"Hey, I'm a good girl." She pouted but giggled nonetheless at that.

"Don't worry Twilight. I'll keep my eye on things." Fluttershy meekly smiled.

Twilight, Rainbow Dash and AppleJack started to walk into the woods and towards the TARDIS. "I hope we can get enough cash for a house. Plus we don't know what kind of currency this place used." Dash said as they walked.

"Ah'm sure we'll do fine. Twilight has a plan." AppleJack smiled. "Don't cha sugarcube?" She leaned in

"I just hope the Doctor will like our idea of moving into town. And maybe he could spare us some change" Twilight replied with a chuckle as they walked through the dirt path in the woods going towards the blue police box. "But one thing I am certain of." She smiled as she looked back to them. "This is just the beginning of our Adventures in this New World."

With that they all headed to the Doctor to tell him the news and their plan to move into the town.
