Note: Citation in the text

The APA style citation and referencing is applied in the journal (according to the instructions that can be downloaded from the link <http://www.apastyle.org/>).

Citations in the text should be given in brackets, stating the author's surname, year of publication and, possibly, pages, if it is a direct quote):

- in the case of summary or paraphrase, references should appear in brackets with the author's name, followed by the year (Brandon, 2015), or (Smith & White, 2022) or in the case of multiple authors (Beckman et al., 2017);
- if the author is not known, give the title of the work and the year (Climate Change, 2020);
- if the same author has published more than two papers at the same year, then the papers are alphabetically separated, i.e. (Hall, 2018a; 2018b);
- in the case of quotation, add the page number, i.e. (Sam, 2019, p. 10);
- if the reference is within the body of the clause, give the author's name and only the year of the paper in brackets, i.e. In Smith (2001) it is proposed

References

References should follow the APA Style convention, in alphabetical order at the end of the paper. If a referenced paper has multiple authors, they all should be quoted. Use Times New Roman, size 10 for references. Wherever possible, provide the DOI number, too, in addition to other reference data.
