God Grew Tired of Us

In order to supplement our studies of Night, we are going to watch a documentary titled God Grew Tired of Us. In the book Night, Elie Wiesel wrote about his experiences during the Holocaust, and this movie is about three men who have survived genocide in Africa. Genocide in Africa is still going on today.

Directions: Please answer the following questions (in short answer), as you watch the documentary.

1. Why is there conflict in Darfur?
2. What are the names of the three men that this documentary focuses on?
3. Why did the “Lost Boys” flee their home villages?
4. Why did the boys leave their refugee camp in Ethiopia?
5. What was the name of the refugee camp in Kenya?
6. What are “white” days and what are “black” days at the refugee camp?

7. What are some perceptions of Americans that the men at the camp have?
8. Which of the men is going to New York?
9. Which of the men are going to Pittsburg?
10. Describe what it was like for the “Lost Boys” after leaving Africa.

Post-Movie (Do not answer until after today’s viewing.)

Journal: How would you feel if you were dropped into a different culture that’s very different from yours all of a sudden? How would you go about adapting? Do you think you would adjust well? Please explain your thoughts in a well developed paragraph.
