

Narrative Fantasy Writing

Name: Ibrahim

T4W3

First paragraph:

Once upon a time in a huge farm there lived a Zebra Cat and more creatures. The reason why Zebra Cat was called that is because his face was a cat and his body was like a Zebra. The Zebra Cat was really friendly and he did a lot of good deeds, he also helped other animals, and he even told everyone to do good deeds. But there lived a dragon in the farm. The dragon was not friendly , he would tell everyone to do bad deeds and all. When the Zebra Cat found out he was really mad and decided to met the dragon. He planned how he is going to meet him because everyone in the farm told him that if you go towards his castle he might kill him. The Zebra Cat was really brave.

Second paragraph:

When he met the dragon the dragon looked at him in a really strange way. The Zebra Cat said I heard you do a lot of bad deeds. The dragon thought that his deeds were actually good deeds. The Zebra Cat tried to convince the dragon to do good deeds , it did not work. But the dragon did not want that. The dragon said let's do a challenge. The challenge was that they had to fight the dragon. The Zebra Cat agreed because that was the only way to convince the dragon to do good deeds.

Third paragraph:

The next day they met in the fighting stadium. The whole crowd sat down to watch. When the fight began the dragon kept shooting fire balls at the Cat Zebra. When the dragon's throat was in pain he felt that he got sick. The Zebra Cat was almost winning the fight but then he did this... He grabbed the dragon and showed sportsmanship. He was taking the dragon to the animal hospital. The dragon was shocked he said I have been a bad dragon and you still forgive me. The Zebra Cat told him this is good deeds. Finally the dragon was so convinced in doing good deeds. He was really mad at himself for doing all those deeds. The whole crowd were really happy at the Zebra Cat. Finally the dragon did good deeds. He even became friends with the Zebra Cat. They lived happily ever after.

The End! Down below is another photo.

