

“Adding to questions about its ability to safely construct and operate a nuclear power plant, a former worker at the Perry Nuclear Power Plant came forward to accuse CEI of hiding crucial geological information about site preparation. A bulldozer operator revealed that at least one hundred workers participating in excavation identified a geologic fault line. Workers were immediately ordered to keep quiet as the fissure was filled with thousands of tons of concrete and construction continued over the site.” *

*From the book “The Division of Light and Power” by Dennis J. Kucinich

Published in 2021 by Finney Avenue Books, LLC, Cleveland, Ohio, pp. 523-524.

Cleveland Plain Dealer 25 May 1979, “CEI is accused of hiding geology info on Perry plant,” by Gary R. Clark and Daniel R. Biddle.