

Ivy Bound SAT & ACT Group Practice Tests – FAQs

Why is group practice testing important?

- You need to be acclimated to actual test conditions.
- Helps you know what to expect of the test and of yourself.
- Helps you get the most out of the real test.
- Testing with a group helps prepare students to adjust to potential distractions on test day.

How many tests should students take?

- Students should plan to take at least seven full-length practice tests prior to the first SAT or ACT
- ___TWO tests should be in proctored situations.

What is the cost?

- Practice tests are FREE for Ivy Bound students. Registration must be received 10 or more days in advance.
- NON-Ivy Bound students are welcome to attend for a fee of $75, or 2/$125 (unless otherwise noted).

What is your registration / cancellation policy?

- Registration is required at least 10 days prior to the test date.
- Registrations are FIRM commitments and should be cancelled only for medical emergencies.
- Cancelling with less than 5 days' notice may be subject to a $50 charge.
- A no-show is a $50 charge unless there is a medical emergency.
- Ivy Bound reserves the right to cancel practice tests if there is insufficient enrollment. Evening tests are run with as few as 2 international students.

Are the tests scored?

- Yes! All students leave the test with a multiple choice score.
- Students taking the essay (ACT ONLY) will receive a score within 3 days.

What are the group test reviews?

- The review is held on Sunday evening of the testing weekend.
- The schedule of review sessions is: ACT at 8:15pm Eastern and SAT at 9:15pm Eastern
- We cannot cover all test questions but will cover tough questions from the test and review strategies.
- Your tutor can cover remaining troublesome questions, and we suggest giving the tutor a list of those troublesome questions in an advance email.

Other important information:

If you desire dates other than those listed below, Ivy Bound can provide proctors and come right to you. The fee is $150 to come to the home (more if using a site with a rental charge). The fee is reduced should others join in. We suggest a four-week advance notice should you want a proctored test on a date other than those listed below. Email robin@ivybound.net to request other dates.
