

There are rules and regulations to deal with chronic wasting disease September 19, 2017

North Dakota, INFORUM

... The first North Dakota deer with CWD was detected in 2009 in unit 3F2. Since then eight more deer have tested positive, all of them also within unit 3F2..

No surprise. CWD found In northwest North Dakota December 8, 2018 North Dakota, Jamestown Sun

... North Dakota's first CWD case was confirmed in 2009, when a mule deer shot by a hunter in 3F2 tested positive. Including this year's two initial positives, that makes 11 cases of CWD in 3F2 and one likely case in 3A1,...

Video

CWD battle is high priority March 19, 2021 North Dakota, The Bowman Extra

... Eighteen deer tested positive during the 2020 hunting season... CWD was first detected in North Dakota in a mule deer buck taken in the fall of 2009 in the southwestern part of the state. In 2018, it was found in northwestern..