

Privacy Policy

LED Light: Smart Remote App ("We", "Us") respects your privacy rights and acknowledges the significance of safeguarding your personal data ("Data").

We have formulated this privacy policy (the "Policy") to elucidate how we collect, process, store, share, and protect the Data you provide to us or that we gather when you engage with our website ("Website"), complete our surveys ("Questionnaires"), subscribe to and use our application ("Application"), and our well-being coaching services (our "Services"), or any other functionalities operated by LED Light: Smart Remote App.

Our application recognizes the importance of your personal information and is committed to ensuring its security and reliability. Adhering to principles such as consistency, clarity, choice, necessity, security, openness, and transparency, we aim to earn and maintain your trust. We assure you that we comply with industry standards to safeguard your personal data.

Before utilizing our products or services, please thoroughly review and comprehend this Privacy Policy.

How We Collect and Utilize Your Personal Information:

Personal information comprises various electronically recorded data that can identify or reflect an individual's activities. We collect and utilize your personal information solely for the purposes outlined in this policy:

We perform internal data analysis, employ third-party SDK statistical services, and improve our products or services.

Data collection is based on your interactions with us and the choices you make, including privacy settings and product usage. The information we gather may include technical details such as device identifiers, IP addresses, browsing history, and more.

If we intend to use your information for purposes not specified in this policy, we will seek your prior consent.

Cookies:

Cookies are small data files commonly used as anonymous unique identifiers. These are sent to your browser from the websites you visit and are stored in your device's internal memory. This Service does not explicitly use these "cookies." However, the app may utilize third-party code and libraries that use "cookies" to gather information and enhance their Services. You have the option to accept or refuse these cookies and receive notifications when a cookie is sent to your device. Refusing our cookies may restrict your access to certain parts of this Service.

Do Not Track (DNT):

While many web browsers offer a DNT feature, there are no universal standards for websites to respond to such requests. However, if you enable DNT, our sites will honor your choice.

How We Share, Transfer, and Publicly Disclose Your Personal Information:

Sharing: Your personal information is not shared unless:

You provide explicit consent.

Mandated by laws or governmental requirements.

Shared with affiliates or authorized partners for specific purposes outlined in this policy.

Transfer: We will transfer your information only with your explicit consent or in cases of mergers, acquisitions, or bankruptcy proceedings, ensuring compliance with this policy.

Public Disclosure: Your information is publicly disclosed with your explicit consent or as required by law.

How We Protect Your Personal Information:

We employ industry-standard security measures to prevent unauthorized access, disclosure, or alteration of your data. While we strive to ensure security, please refrain from transmitting sensitive information via unencrypted channels. We limit data collection to what is necessary, retaining information only for as long as required or permitted by law. In the event of a security breach, we will promptly notify you and take necessary actions to address the issue.

Your Rights:

You have the right to access and update your personal information as necessary. We provide means for you to manage your data within the app and account settings.

Updating This Privacy Policy:

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically, with changes becoming effective seven days after notification or publication on our website. Your continued use of our services implies acceptance of the revised policy.
