I'm gonna have him and Patrick McCreary heavily working on L barrels for the deal
I already have 30 to contribute

Well then you need to begin reading and looking into things. A RHM should know very well what a weekly trade has been recently and to start the weekly trade for me.

Are you still planning on asking Thrax to leave chomo inc?

Masco 09/26/2022

There's nothing about an upcoming trade deal posted anywhere and if my Captain fails to inform me of these things...

@Dev Kody Are you still planning on asking Thrax to leave chomo inc?

Masco 09/26/2022

Not sure honestly. I think I might just chill and not play the character until ya'll get everything straightened out.

I think just about everyone that doesn't sit in vc with ya'll are still kind of clueless about everything.

I feel you, Captains, and RHM's should have at least a once a week vc meeting to keep everyone informed with what's going on.

Read announcements you missed the past two meetings

There is meetings and announcements my guy everything is put in there

Masco 09/26/2022

This is all that's mentioned.

"Also we will be having another trade deal soon so starting building your stock to sell and trade for this deal. I'm expecting you guys to be showing faction."

Sorry if I can't make meetings. Most of the time these happen while I am at work, so it's physically impossible. Would figure the Captain would keep

Dev Kody 09/26/2022

He should be

Masco 09/26/2022

The rest of the announcements are about kickups

Dev Kody 09/26/2022

Weekly trade dates will come out soon

Masco 09/26/2022
