Why listen to me?

With a diverse background spanning retail, image consulting, and over a decade in human resources, I've evolved into a coach and mentor specializing in women's transition and personal development.

Inspired by volunteering in hospice, I incorporate therapeutic harp music into my practice. I mentor individuals of all ages, including a 73-year-old student.

Integrating expressive art tools like MARI, I guide participants on transformative journeys, harnessing the power of colour and music for healing and self-discovery.
