

All run by volunteers...

No charges... Visitors free to make donations...

Old Saint Stephen's

"Dead interesting."

Is there a stone with my name on it?

Well worth a visit, the interior of Old St Stephen's Church has not been changed since it was built 1822. Come & see box pews, a West Gallery and a three-decker pulpit.

Owned by The Churches' Conservation Trust, Old St Stephen's is kept open by a Friends' group. Visit the website for details of concerts, churchyard walks & exhibitions as well as services eg Gansey Sunday.

? Why do half the pews face backwards?

Where: YO22 4PF • Map ref: NZ9/2059
When: Open Daily during summer or by arrangement - keyholders details in porch.
More: 07874 053289
www.oldststephens.co.uk

Robin Hood's Bay Museum

"Crammed with things."

Wind your way along cobbled paths and steps to find stories of shipwrecks and smuggling, fossils, coffin adornments and a naughty granny. See life in Robin Hood's Bay from the cradle to the grave. Find out who did what - it may surprise you!

? What was so special about a Gansey?

Come and see what they wore

what they did

where they went

Where: Fisherhead, follows signs in village
When: June & September Sunday 2-4
July & August daily 12-4
Bank holidays by arrangement
More: 01 947 8 80260 museum@rhbay.co.uk
<http://museum.rhbay.co.uk>

Fylingdales Archives

"A treasure trove for the more serious deliver."

The Fylingdales Local History Group holds monthly meetings and runs the local Archive Library. A great resource for those researching family history and Bay connections with maps, photos and Parish Records.

We are open for reference every Monday (except Bank Holidays) from 2pm to 4pm. Admission is free.

? How did the local boats ever get insured?

Where: Robin Hood's Bay Methodist Church, Wesley Road
When: Mondays 2-4pm
More: 01 947 8 80336
<http://historyrhbay.co.uk>

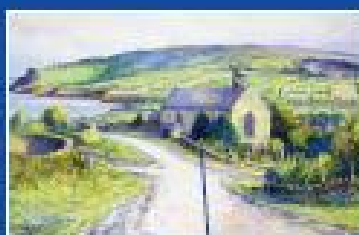

History...

...you're standing in it.

Take a wander through time...

walk it,
see it,
feel it,
find it,
...all for free.

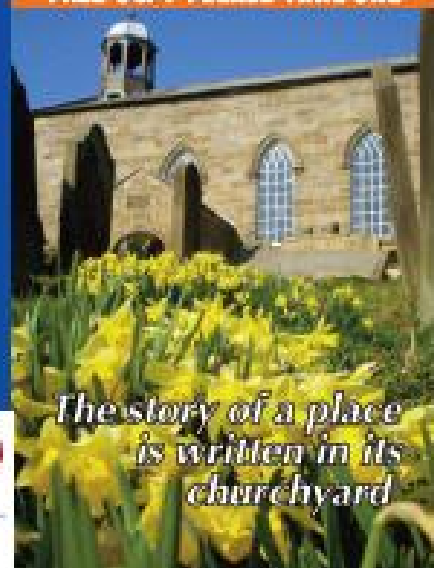

Scene from an original by John Parnall

ROBIN HOOD'S BAY History & Heritage trail

FREE COPY PLEASE TAKE ONE

The story of a place is written in its churchyard

North Yorkshire Council, Defra, and others