Job Description

An 8-year established Massage Therapy Studio in Helena, Montana, with a focus on organic and holistic health, is looking for 1 Licensed Massage Therapist (LMT) to help its growing practice. The LMT would act as an independent contractor or an employee, depending on the goals established between Wild Willow and the LMT.

Wild Willow Wellness wants its therapist to be focused on providing high quality body work to the Helena community. Its management takes care of client booking, generating clients, and all other basic business operations so that the contracted therapist or employee can do what they do best.

Requirements for contractors/employees:

Current Montana state massage therapy license or ability to apply and receive one, Professional liability insurance, Montana Independent Contractors License

Strong candidates will have:

- 2 years + experience as a licensed massage therapist desired but not required with a strong example of good massage skills while in school or just finished.
- A positive demeanor
- Experience working in a "body therapy" business desired but not required
- Professional references
- Ability to communicate clearly and professionally
- Motivation to do your best and grow your skills
- Clean and ethical professional practices
- Passion for providing healing and wellness to your community
- Ability to thrive in a private setting, where only one client is seen at a time

-Respect for and ability to work within the boundaries of a non-toxic studio that uses green and environmentally friendly products and as little plastics as possible

Commission base is 50% of earnings + 100% of tips. Commission to contractor for massages are as follows: $45-$50 for 60-minutes; $56-$62.5 for 75-minutes; $65-$75 for 90-minute, and $90-$100+ for 120-minutes. Commission for retail supplementary sales. After one year working with Wild Willow, the company will invest in the LMT's professional development.

For a high-quality therapist just out of school, who wants to be independent in their career, starting at Wild Willow Wellness is a great entry point to the community of Helena. Build a loyal following and the skills needed to run your own practice. There is so much need for bodyworkers here in Helena, but it takes a while to establish yourself.

We strongly respect our massage therapists and their own health and comfort while working.
