

Timothy Tseng

San Francisco Bay Area, California | timothytseng@fuller.edu

Summary

Rev. Tim Tseng, Ph.D., is a pioneering historian of Asian American Christianity and a recognized Asian American Christian leader. He currently serves as the Research Professor of the History of Christianity and Asian American Studies and the Director of the Asian American Christian History Institute (AACHI) at Fuller Theological Seminary.

Tim has held faculty appointments at various seminaries. He is the founder and former leader of the Institute for the Study of Asian American Christianity (ISAAC) [now Innovative Space for Asian American Christianity]. Tim is ordained American Baptist. He has served as Pastor of English Ministries at Canaan Taiwanese Christian Church in San Jose, California and as the Pacific Area Director of InterVarsity Christian Fellowship's Graduate and Faculty Ministries.

Tim earned his Ph.D. in the history of Christianity from Union Theological Seminary in New York. His lifelong vocation has been to edify people of faith through research, teaching, and consulting. He has lectured, led workshops, and published extensively in the areas of Chinese American Christianity, Asian American studies, evangelicalism, the social gospel, the history of Christianity, and race and religion in American history.

Tim has been happily married to Betty Shek Tseng since 1985, and they are parents of two adult sons.

The late Dr. J. Alfred Smith said that "Doctor Tim Tseng is one of the top scholars in the field of theology, history and philosophy. As an educator, he is respected by all of his peers as well as emerging scholars. Doctor Tseng is second to none. His character is impeccable. He has enriched my life and taught much. He deserves the highest accolades." (LinkedIn, 2013)
