

Interesso Terms and Conditions

Effective Date: October 22, 2025

1. Introduction

Welcome to Interesso, a social networking mobile application designed to connect people through shared interests and facilitate offline meetups. These Terms and Conditions (the "Terms") govern your access to and use of the Interesso app and services (collectively, the "Service"). By downloading, registering an account, or otherwise using Interesso, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by these Terms. If you do not agree with these Terms, you must not use the Service. Interesso is currently provided free of charge (no subscription fees) and is available globally. A separate Privacy Policy governs how we collect, use, and share your personal data (available at [Privacy Policy Placeholder]). By using the Service, you also agree to the practices described in the Privacy Policy.

2. Acceptance of Terms

These Terms constitute a legally binding agreement between you and Interesso (referred to as "Interesso," "we," or "us"). You accept these Terms by creating an account or by otherwise accessing or using the Service. You may not use the Service if you are barred from receiving services under the laws of your applicable jurisdiction or if you have been previously banned from the Service. We may update these Terms from time to time as described in Section 16. Your continued use of the Service after any updated Terms have become effective indicates your acceptance of the updated Terms. If you do not agree to the Terms or any updated Terms, you should stop using the Service and delete your account.

3. Eligibility and Age Requirements

Interesso is intended for users of various ages, but you must be capable of entering into a binding contract in your country of residence to use the Service. In most countries, this means you must be at least the age of majority (18 in many jurisdictions). Individuals under 18 years old may use the Service only with the consent of a parent or legal guardian, who must review and agree to these Terms on their behalf. Certain features of the Service are restricted to adult users: for example, creating groups or organizing public events is only permitted for users 18 years or older. We do not knowingly allow children under 13 to use Interesso; if you are under 13 years old (or under the minimum age in your jurisdiction for providing consent to data processing), please do not use or register for the Service. Because Interesso is available globally, you are responsible for ensuring that your use of the Service is in compliance with any local age restrictions and laws that apply in your area.

4. Account Registration and Security

To access most features of Interesseo, you must register an account. When creating an account, you agree to provide accurate, current, and complete information, including your name, a valid email address, date of birth, and your location. You are responsible for keeping your registration information up-to-date. You must also choose a secure password. You must safeguard your account credentials and not share them with others. You are responsible for all activities that occur under your account. If you become aware of any unauthorized use of your account or any breach of security, you agree to notify us immediately.

You may only create and use one account for yourself, and you must not create an account for anyone else without their permission. If you create an account on behalf of an organization or group, you represent that you have the authority to do so and to bind that entity to these Terms.

Account Deletion: You may delete your Interesseo account at any time through the app's account settings. Once you initiate deletion, your profile and personal information will be scheduled for removal from our active systems, as described in our Privacy Policy. Some content you have posted (such as messages or group posts) may remain visible to others if it was shared with them, and we may retain certain data as required by law or for legitimate business purposes (for example, backup archives or logs). By deleting your account, you understand that you will lose access to any information or content associated with that account.

5. User Content Ownership and License

Interesseo allows users to create, post, and share content, including group listings, event descriptions, photos, text messages, and other materials (collectively, "User Content"). You retain ownership of any User Content that you create or post on Interesseo. Interesseo does not claim ownership over your User Content. However, in order for us to operate the Service, you grant Interesseo a license to use your content as follows:

- License to Interesseo: By submitting or posting User Content on the Service, you grant Interesseo a worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty-free, sublicensable and transferable license to use, host, store, reproduce, modify (for example, reformat or adapt for technical display), distribute, publish, publicly perform, and publicly display your User Content for the purpose of operating, developing, providing, and promoting the Service. This license enables, for example, that we can display your posts to other users, crop or resize your photos for display, and include content you post in screenshots or marketing materials for Interesseo.
- Duration of License: This license to your User Content continues until you remove the content from the Service or delete your account. If you remove content, the license will generally end after a reasonable period of time needed for full removal from backups and other systems. However, you understand that content you have shared with others (for example, sent in a group or posted in a public meetup) may continue to be used by those other users, and we may retain copies as required by law or for legitimate business purposes (such as to cooperate with law enforcement or to preserve evidence of our Terms enforcement).

By posting any User Content, you represent and warrant that you have all necessary rights to that content and are not violating any copyright, trademark, trade secret, privacy, publicity, or other rights of any other person or entity. You agree that your content will comply with the Acceptable Use requirements in Section 6. You are solely responsible for the User Content you create and share on Interesseo. Interesseo does not endorse, verify, or guarantee the accuracy or quality of any User Content posted by users. While we are not obligated to monitor user postings, we reserve the right to remove or disable access to any User Content that violates these Terms or that we deem objectionable, at our discretion.

6. Acceptable Use and Prohibited Content

When using Interesseo, you must behave responsibly and respect the rights of others. You agree not to post or share any content that is illegal, harmful, or otherwise prohibited. In particular, you may NOT upload, transmit, create, or share content that:

- Illegal or Harmful Content: Is unlawful, illegal, or promotes any illegal activities; contains defamatory or fraudulent statements; or could otherwise cause harm.
- Abusive or Hateful Content: Is abusive, harassing, bullying, or hateful toward any individual or group; includes hate speech, threats of violence, or any content that advocates hatred or harm against any person or group.
- Offensive or Obscene Material: Is obscene, pornographic, or sexually explicit (particularly any content inappropriate for minors); depicts graphic violence or adult content without appropriate access restrictions.
- Infringing Content: Infringes or violates the intellectual property rights of others, including copyrights, trademarks, patents, trade secrets, or other proprietary rights, or encourages others to do so.
- Privacy Violations: Violates any person's privacy or publicity rights, such as posting personal or identifying information about someone without their consent.
- Misleading or Fraudulent: Is intentionally false, misleading, or deceptive; impersonates any person or entity, or misrepresents your identity or affiliation with a person or entity.
- Spam or Malware: Constitutes unsolicited or unauthorized advertising, promotional materials, junk mail, spam, chain letters, or any form of solicitation; or contains malicious code, viruses, worms, or any software intended to damage or hijack the operation of any hardware, software, or telecommunications equipment.
- Otherwise Harmful: Contains anything that is otherwise harmful, dangerous, or objectionable (including content that promotes self-harm, suicide, excessive violence, or harmful misinformation) or that violates any community standards we may implement.

We expect all users to interact civilly and respectfully. Content that violates these rules may be removed, and accounts involved may be suspended or terminated (see Section 15 on Termination).

Prohibited Activities

In addition to the content rules above, you agree not to engage in any of the following activities on or in relation to the Service:

- Illegal Use: Do not use the Service for any unlawful purpose or in furtherance of illegal activities. You agree to comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and ordinances in your use of Interesseo.
- Interference with Service: Do not interfere with or disrupt the normal operation of the Service or the experience of other users. This includes not attempting to disable, overburden, or impair the Service or Interesseo's networks or systems (for example, by launching denial-of-service attacks or distributing malware).
- Unauthorized Access: Do not attempt to hack, gain unauthorized access to, or circumvent any security or authentication measures of the Service, other user accounts, or the servers and networks used to provide the Service. You will not attempt to probe, scan, or test the vulnerability of any Interesseo system or network without authorization.
- Automated Use: Do not use any automated means (such as bots, scrapers, or scripts) to access, collect data from, or otherwise interact with the Service, unless we have given you express permission. This includes not scraping content or attempting to extract source code or underlying ideas or algorithms of any part of the Service.
- Multiple Accounts and Impersonation: Do not create multiple accounts for deceptive purposes or to bypass account restrictions, and do not impersonate any person or entity or misrepresent your affiliation with a person or entity.
- Unauthorized Commercial Use: Do not resell, rent, or commercially exploit the Service or access to the Service, and do not use the Service to advertise or solicit users to buy or sell any products or services outside of Interesseo without our prior written approval.
- No Reverse Engineering: You will not reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble the app or any software or technology used to provide the Service, except to the extent allowed by law that cannot be waived by contract.

Violation of any of the above content or activity rules is grounds for immediate removal of content, and/or suspension or termination of your account (see Section 15). Interesseo reserves the right (but does not assume the obligation) to investigate and take appropriate legal action against anyone who, in our sole discretion, violates these Terms, including reporting you to law enforcement authorities if your conduct is unlawful.

7. Privacy and Data Use

Your privacy is important to us. Our practices regarding the collection and use of your personal information are described in our Privacy Policy (see the link provided in the Introduction section). Please review the Privacy Policy to understand how we collect, use, store, and disclose your information. By using the Service, you consent to the collection and use of information as described in the Privacy Policy.

Interesso may share data with trusted third-party service providers who assist us in operating the Service. For example, we use third-party companies for services such as application hosting, data storage, analytics, email delivery, push notifications, and other support technology. These providers are given access to data only as reasonably necessary to perform their functions on our behalf and are obligated to handle the data in a secure and confidential manner consistent with applicable privacy laws and our Privacy Policy. By using Interesso, you acknowledge and agree that your information may be transferred to or processed by such third-party processors for the purpose of providing the Service.

Please note that Interesso is a global service. By using the Service, you understand that your information may be transferred to and stored on servers in countries different from your own, which may have data protection rules different from your country. We will take appropriate measures to ensure your personal data is protected in accordance with applicable law. For details, consult the Privacy Policy.

8. Interesso's Intellectual Property

All content and materials provided by Interesso through the Service (excluding User Content as defined in Section 5) are the property of Interesso or its licensors and are protected by copyright, trademark, and other intellectual property laws. This includes, but is not limited to, the Interesso name and logo, the app's design, software code, functionality, databases, text, graphics, user interface, and all other elements of the Service not contributed by users (collectively, "Interesso Content").

We grant you a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable license to access and use the Interesso Content and Service for your personal, non-commercial use only, and only as expressly permitted by these Terms. You may not copy, modify, distribute, sell, lease, reverse engineer, or create derivative works from any of Interesso's Content or the software/service itself, unless you have our explicit written permission to do so or such actions are expressly allowed by law.

Trademarks: The Interesso name, logo, and any related product or service names, designs, and slogans are trademarks of Interesso or its affiliates. You must not use any of these without our prior written permission. All other names, logos, product names, or trademarks that may appear within the Service are the property of their respective owners and are used for identification purposes only. Nothing in these Terms grants you any rights to use any trademarks, service marks, or logos displayed in the Service.

9. Third-Party Services and Links

The Service may contain links to third-party websites or services, or incorporate third-party APIs and functionality (for example, map services for location, social media sharing features, or authentication through third-party accounts). These third-party services are not owned or controlled by Interesseo, and different terms and privacy policies may apply to them. Interesseo is not responsible or liable for the availability, accuracy, or content of third-party services. If you access third-party links or integrations through Interesseo, you do so at your own risk.

When you use a third-party service within Interesseo (or access a link to a third-party site), you acknowledge that you may be sharing data with those third parties, and that the use of your data by third parties is governed by their own privacy and terms, not by Interesseo's. We encourage you to review the terms and policies of any third-party service before using it. Interesseo does not endorse, warrant, or assume any responsibility for any third-party offerings or resources.

10. Beta Service Disclaimer

Interesseo is currently in its initial (beta) release. This means the Service is still under active development and testing. Features and functionality are subject to change as we refine the app, and you may experience bugs, errors, or interruptions that would not be present in a final product. By using Interesseo during this beta phase, you acknowledge and accept that:

- The Service is provided as a “beta” product, which may not be fully functional in all respects. You may encounter software bugs, glitches, delayed notifications, or other issues. We appreciate your understanding and any feedback as we work to improve the Service.
- Features may be added, changed, or removed at any time as we update the app. What you see today in the app may evolve rapidly. We reserve the right to modify or discontinue (temporarily or permanently) parts of the Service without prior notice as part of the beta development process.
- We do not guarantee any level of performance or availability during the beta period. The Service may be interrupted, including for maintenance, updates, or due to technical issues. See also Section 11 (Service Availability).
- Because this is an evolving platform, limited guarantees apply. All disclaimers of warranty and liability limitations described in these Terms (see Sections 12 and 13) apply fully to the beta Service. You use the Service at your own risk, and we appreciate your patience and understanding regarding its evolving nature.

We welcome feedback on your experience with Interesseo. However, providing feedback is optional and entirely at your discretion. Any feedback you do provide may be used by Interesseo to improve the Service without obligation to you.

11. Service Availability and Changes

We strive to keep Interesseo up and running, but we do not guarantee that the Service will be available at all times or at any particular time. The Service may occasionally be unavailable without notice, for example due to scheduled maintenance or upgrades, emergency repairs, network failures, or unforeseen circumstances beyond our control. Interesseo reserves the right to suspend or discontinue the Service or any part of it at any time, for any reason (including to perform maintenance, fix bugs, or implement updates), without incurring liability.

You agree that Interesseo will not be liable to you or to any third party for any modification, suspension, or discontinuation of the Service or any feature or component of the Service. We encourage you to keep backups of any important information or content that you have posted to the Service, as we do not guarantee that content you have posted will always be available through the Service. (See also the No Warranties and Limitation of Liability sections for additional protections regarding service availability.)

12. No Warranties (Disclaimer of Warranties)

Interesseo is provided “AS IS” and “AS AVAILABLE.” To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Interesseo disclaims all warranties, whether express, implied, or statutory, regarding the Service and any content, features, or services provided therein. This includes, but is not limited to, implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title, non-infringement, and any warranties that may arise from course of dealing or course of performance. We make no promises or guarantees that the Service will always be available, uninterrupted, secure, or free of errors, viruses, or other harmful components.

Interesseo does not guarantee the accuracy, completeness, or usefulness of any information on the Service, nor does it warrant that any content (including User Content) will meet your expectations or requirements. You understand that use of the Service is at your own risk. You are solely responsible for any damage to your device or computer system, loss of data, or any other harm that results from your access to or use of the Service or any material downloaded from the Service.

Some jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion of certain warranties. If any law applies to you that prohibits the exclusion of certain warranties, then to the extent required by that law, some of the exclusions set forth in this section may not apply to you. In such cases, Interesseo’s warranties will be limited to the minimum warranty scope permitted by applicable law.

13. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Interesso and its officers, directors, employees, agents, partners, and licensors shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, special, consequential, punitive, or exemplary damages, or any loss of profits, revenues, business opportunities, goodwill, data, or other intangible losses, arising out of or related to your use of (or inability to use) the Service or any content on the Service. This limitation of liability applies to all claims, whether based on warranty, contract, tort (including negligence), strict liability, or any other legal theory, even if Interesso has been advised of the possibility of such damages, and even if a remedy set forth herein is found to have failed its essential purpose.

In particular, Interesso will not be liable for any injury or damage resulting from the behavior of other users or third parties, or from your attendance at any offline meetups or events organized through the Service (see also Section 14 regarding Meetups). We are not responsible for any content posted by users or the actions of users, and you release Interesso from any claims or liability related to any content posted by other users or the conduct of other users.

If, notwithstanding the above exclusions, Interesso is found to be liable to you for any claim or cause of action, our total liability to you for all damages, losses, and causes of action will not exceed the amount (if any) you have paid Interesso in the last six (6) months for the Service, or EUR €50, whichever is greater. (Since the Service is currently free, this monetary cap may effectively be zero in many cases.)

Exceptions: Nothing in these Terms is intended to exclude or limit liability that cannot be excluded under law. This includes liability for death or personal injury caused by Interesso's negligence, or for Interesso's fraud or willful misconduct, or any other liability that cannot be limited or excluded by applicable law. In jurisdictions that do not allow the exclusion or limitation of liability for certain damages, our liability will be limited to the smallest degree permitted by law.

You agree that if you are dissatisfied with any aspect of the Service, or with these Terms, your sole and exclusive remedy is to discontinue use of the Service and, if applicable, delete your account.

14. Meetups and User Interactions

A core purpose of Interesso is to enable users to connect in person through shared interests. However, Interesso does not supervise or control offline meetings or user interactions, and we cannot guarantee the safety or conduct of any individual participant. If you choose to meet up with one or more people you've connected with through Interesso, you acknowledge and agree that you do so voluntarily and at your own risk.

Please exercise common sense and good judgment when arranging or participating in meetups: we recommend meeting in public places, letting friends or family know your plans, and being cautious about sharing personal information. Interesso is not responsible or liable for any personal injury, property damage, theft, loss, or any other harm or damages that may result from your voluntary participation in any offline meetings or events organized through the Service. All arrangements made through the Service are between the users involved, and Interesso disclaims any and all liability arising from or related to those interactions.

Interesso does not conduct background checks on users, and we do not verify the truth or accuracy of users' statements or identities. You are solely responsible for your interactions with other users of the Service, whether online or in person. We reserve the right, but have no obligation, to monitor or become involved in disputes between users (though we may take action on the platform such as account suspension if a user is reported for harmful behavior). By using the Service, you release Interesso (and our officers, directors, employees, and agents) from any and all claims or liability arising from any personal interactions or meetings with other users.

15. Termination of Use

By Interesso: We reserve the right to suspend or terminate your account or your access to all or part of the Service at any time, with or without notice, for any reason. This can include, without limitation, violation of these Terms, unlawful or improper use of the Service, creating risk or possible legal exposure for us or other users, extended periods of inactivity, or if we discontinue the Service. We may also remove or refuse to distribute any content you have provided at any time if we determine it violates our policies or these Terms. If we terminate your account for a violation of these Terms or unlawful behavior, you may not create a new account to circumvent the termination.

By You: You are free to stop using Interesso at any time. If you wish to terminate your agreement with us, you may delete your account at your discretion (see Section 4 on account deletion). Termination of your account will not relieve you of any obligation to pay any fees (though currently there are none) or charges owed to Interesso, if applicable, and will not affect any liability that may have arisen prior to termination.

Effect of Termination: Upon termination of your account, whether by you or us, your right to access and use the Service will immediately cease. We will have no obligation to maintain or provide any of your content, data, or information after termination, except as required by law or as provided in our Privacy Policy. However, the provisions of these Terms that by their nature should survive termination will survive, including but not limited to the sections relating to User Content Ownership and License, Intellectual Property, No Warranties, Limitation of Liability, Meetups and User Interactions, Governing Law, and General Provisions.

16. Changes to These Terms

Interesso may modify or update these Terms from time to time. If we make material changes to the Terms, we will provide you with appropriate notice – for example, by sending an email to the address associated with your account or by displaying a prominent in-app notification – prior to the change becoming effective. The notice will designate a reasonable advance effective date for the updated Terms. It is your responsibility to keep your email address current and to review any new Terms that are communicated to you.

If you continue to use the Service after the effective date of updated Terms, that continued use will constitute your acceptance of the new Terms. If you do not agree to the revised Terms, you must stop using the Service and delete your account before the new Terms take effect. We encourage you to periodically review the Terms and any guidelines or policies incorporated in them to ensure you understand the terms and conditions that apply to your use of Interesseo.

Updates to the Terms will typically be prospective, but in certain circumstances we may need to make immediate changes for legal reasons; in such cases, we will indicate that the changes are effective immediately. Except as may be expressly provided in the updated Terms, any changes or modifications will replace all previous versions of the Terms.

17. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

These Terms and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with these Terms or your use of the Service shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Germany, without regard to its conflict of law principles. However, if you are a consumer residing in a country with mandatory consumer protection laws, those laws may apply for your benefit to the extent they are more protective. This governing law provision does not limit any consumer protection rights that you may be entitled to under the mandatory laws of your country of residence.

Jurisdiction: You and Interesseo agree that all disputes arising under or related to these Terms or the Service that cannot be resolved amicably shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Gera, Germany. You and Interesseo consent to the personal jurisdiction of these courts. Notwithstanding this, you and Interesseo each retain the right to seek injunctive or other equitable relief in any court of competent jurisdiction to prevent actual or threatened infringement, misappropriation, or violation of a party's intellectual property rights.

Dispute Resolution and Mediation: We encourage you to contact us first if you have any issue with the Service or these Terms, so we can attempt to resolve it informally. In the event of any dispute, claim, or controversy between you and Interesseo, the parties agree to attempt in good faith to negotiate a written resolution for at least 30 days before initiating formal legal action. If negotiation fails, the parties may also agree to try in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation in Gera, Germany (or another location or online platform agreed upon by both parties) before resorting to litigation. Mediation is not mandatory under these Terms, but it is encouraged as a cost-effective and amicable way to resolve disagreements.

18. Miscellaneous Provisions

- Entire Agreement: These Terms (together with the Privacy Policy and any additional guidelines or rules posted on the Service) constitute the entire agreement between you and Interesseo regarding the Service. They supersede all prior or contemporaneous understandings and agreements, whether written or oral, relating to the Service. Any additional or different terms proposed by you (for example, in any communication) are hereby rejected and shall be of no force or effect.

- No Waiver: No failure or delay by Interesseo in exercising any right or enforcing any provision of these Terms shall constitute a waiver of that right or provision. Similarly, a waiver of one instance of non-compliance with these Terms does not mean that we will waive any later instance of non-compliance. Any waiver of any provision of these Terms will be effective only if in writing and signed by an authorized representative of Interesseo.
- Severability: If any provision of these Terms is held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable for any reason by a court of competent jurisdiction, then that provision shall be eliminated or limited to the minimum extent such that the remainder of the Terms will continue in full force and effect. In other words, the invalidity of one part of these Terms will not affect the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions, which will remain in effect.
- Force Majeure: Interesseo shall not be liable for any delay or failure to perform its obligations under these Terms if such delay or failure arises from causes beyond its reasonable control. This includes, without limitation, acts of God, natural disasters, acts of government, war, civil unrest, acts of terror, labor shortages or strikes, global pandemics, internet or telecommunications failures, power outages, or any other events of force majeure. During such events, our obligations under these Terms will be suspended to the extent and for the duration that they are affected by the force majeure.
- Assignment: You may not assign or transfer any of your rights or obligations under these Terms without our prior written consent. Any attempt by you to assign in violation of this provision will be null and void. Interesseo may assign or transfer its rights and obligations under these Terms to an affiliate, or to a successor in interest (for example, if we undergo a merger, acquisition, or sale of assets), or by operation of law. These Terms will bind and inure to the benefit of the parties, their successors, and permitted assigns.
- No Third-Party Beneficiaries: These Terms are for the benefit of you and Interesseo. Except as expressly provided in these Terms, no third party has any rights to enforce any provision of these Terms.
- Relationship of the Parties: You and Interesseo are independent contracting parties. These Terms do not create any agency, partnership, joint venture, employment, or franchise relationship. You have no authority to make or accept any offers or representations on behalf of Interesseo.
- Headings and Interpretation: Section headings in these Terms are included for convenience only and have no legal or contractual effect. Words like "including" or "for example" are deemed to be followed by "without limitation." These Terms will not be construed against the party that drafted them, but will be interpreted in accordance with the fair meaning of their language.
