Sponsoring

If you want to support me, there is the option to sponsor a personal image. You can donate to specific works on my Throne if you want to push me to focus on them. I still do personal work without the need of Throne, but sponsoring will help me focus on doing my own things without worrying about finances.

Sponsors will have their names put under image descriptions, but will not have a say in the final outcome.

Sponsored pic costs will align with commission prices.

How I work

NOTE!: With my waitlist method, it will take multiple months for me to get to your comm! Thank you for understanding.

Couple of things to note:

1. All my transactions and prices are in GBP (Great British Pound / Pound Sterling).
2. Payment is done through card - VISA, Mastercard, Maestro, Apple Pay, Google Pay and all the major cards will work.
 - a. (My payment processor is Square - you do not need an account to use it)
3. Paypal is not an option.

The Waiting List

There is a limit of 5 commissions being worked on at once. If those 5 slots are full you will be put in the waiting list, no money will be asked for while you are on the waiting list.

Please Note: The waiting list should never be used as an indicator of timing, / cannot tell you when I will get started on your comm, because I cannot predict what will happen between now and then.

Payment

Once we have both settled on the idea that you want, I will send you an invoice via email for half of the total price and get to sketching.

Once you are happy with the sketch, I will send the other half of the invoice and get to inking and colouring.

If your comm includes adding light & shade, I will get back to you with a WIP image of the flat colours for confirmation, before moving on to rendering.

Have These Things Prepared

I will need the following from you:

- An email to send the invoices too.
- Your references.
- If you are contacting me through Furaffinity's notes, you can give me a Discord or Telegram handle to help streamline communication, if you wish.

Terms of Service

In hiring my services you are agreeing to the following terms:

- 1) My services are provided to adults over the age of eighteen (18) years. By hiring me you acknowledge that you are over 18 years of age.
- 2) I, the artist, retain the rights to post, upload, publish or display any produced artwork in any given venue or platform.
- 3) I, the artist, reserve the right to refuse, reject or cancel your commission or request at any stage if I feel the need to do so, without any further communication. If this does indeed happen, you will receive a full refund, or partial depending on what work has been done thus far.

Prices

When prices do change, any active comms will be locked to the old prices until completion - Anyone in the waiting list will be affected by the new prices!

Additional info - Each year on the 6th of April, I will be adjusting my prices according to the UK government living wage, for people aged 23 & over.
