

Dear Second Grade families,

The Christmas season is here and we're excited to share in the Second Grade tradition of singing "The Little Drummer Boy" in Mater Dei's pageant. The pageant is on Tuesday, December 9 at 1:30 pm and 7:00 pm.

We ask that students be dressed in simple shepherd costumes to represent the little drummer boy. For example, students could use a cut-up pillow case as a cloak, dish towel for their head, or cloth as their sash. It does not have to be fancy or ornate. Students do not need to have a drum. Costumes will be brought in to school on the day of the pageant in a labeled bag. We'll send them home for the evening performance.

For the evening pageant, students will be dropped off directly to their teacher, in church, no later than 6:30, already dressed in their costumes.

We're looking forward to a beautiful evening that puts everyone in the holiday spirit. Please reach out if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Mrs. DiMascio and Mrs. Sitoski
