DETAILS

Description	The Perendale combines the steel of supportive pocket springs with the cloud-like sensation of the naturally filled, integrated pillow top. The Regular version of this mattress has a medium-to-firm feel. 12,300 springs - 8 total layers Our Perendale pillow top mattress has two layers of natural fillings and four layers of pocket springs contained in the topper, which is sewn to the the main body of the mattress. With a total of 6 spring layers, this is a deep, single-sided mattress which should be rotated, but not flipped over. The Perendale mattress includes Egyptian Cotton, which with its longer, finer strands than ordinary cotton, helps wick away moisture. When combined with the heat regulating, naturally supportive and anti-bacterial properties of Wool, you have a very special mattress. Egyptian Cotton - longer, finer threads aid breathability and cooling. Wool - soft, springy and naturally supportive; keeps you warm and dry. Hemp - highly absorbent, hypo-allergenic, antimicrobial and breathable. Flax - strong, light and sustainable fibre that promotes breathability. Cotton - soft, absorbent and highly breathable, wicks away moisture.
Dimensions	W: 180 cm L: 200 cm H: 37 cm
Turn-able?	This is a single-sided mattress, which should be rotated, but not flipped over.
