

UPDATE on the Post "Biblical Ciphers and Code - Part Two - The Antichrist and the End Times".

After putting up the post a couple of things have come to light that I'd like to share, proving that there is more behind-the-scenes groundwork that is inching us ever closer to the prophetic conditions that would unveil the antichrist and usher in the end.

In the post, we already discussed some key features about the mark of the beast. The fact that it is going to be made mandatory, and refusal to get it would mean death (Rev 13:15-16). And it is going to be required for trade (Rev 13:17).

With implantable NFC/RFID chips, the size of a grain of rice, it isn't hard to see the technical application for ID and trade via a mark or implant on the hand or forehead. In Sweden, the practical use of implanted NFC chips is becoming mainstream:

And a step further in the bio-tech world is what I just found out about basically tattooing a chip's circuitry and antennas to the skin. Furthermore, ingesting a pill that would basically integrate, or map one's biology to identify and transmit their unique bio-markers. Almost as if fingerprint, retina, or face biometrics were not sufficient, now your internal biology would be used as your ID. Now pair this biotech with the NFC wallet and you'll have the makings of what the mark of the beast would look like in the future:

Another update worth noting is the UK's push for "mandatory" digital ID. The reason they give is tied to illegal immigration and the economy. But totalitarian government control is not far off. And the government's online safety act is proof that what may start off as nice and helpful could easily be weaponized to go after those you don't agree with. Anyway, it is clearly going to be in the antichrist's playbook to "mandate" and keep tabs on everyone for absolute control. So this again is another groundwork paving the way for the fulfillment of prophecy, especially in light of the mark of the beast. In the future climate of famines, wars, and so much uncertainty, human rights would easily be waived and surrendered to government for totalitarian control, with the promise of normalizing the economy or something like that:

And lastly, one important marker in the end-time prophecies is the presence of a Temple in Jerusalem. This is ground zero for where the antichrist would be revealed, because he would desecrate the Temple and announce himself as a god in the Temple (Daniel 9:27, Matthew 24:15, 2 Thess 2:3–4). In the post, I cited the geopolitical challenges of building the Temple, but since God said it would happen, it MUST happen. Not long after the post, I came across an interview showing that the agenda of building the third Jewish Temple is at the forefront of political discourse between Israel and America. It's just a matter of time before it all materializes and becomes mainstream news:
