Game completion list

Rough explanation of Categories:

Completed: I finished it. Not 100% completed, but at the very least the main story is finished

Not Completed: Didn't finish the main story, or just didn't even finish at all

NREI (No Real Ending or Ignore): Arcade-style games or games I have gotten from random sources.

Parenthesis info explanation:

Streamed: This game was streamed. Will be indicated by either a "Twitch" or "Youtube" alongside it to indicate where.

Sister's: This game is owned by my sister. They can currently be borrowed.

Digital: I own it Digitally. This ignores the entirety of Switch Online because it's a "rent" and not an "own.," as well as the majority of my Wiiware titles, as they aren't playable.

Emulated: The game was emulated to complete it. I try to play on the hardware since I think it's more fun and I'm weird.

Other version: A different version of this game was played, with the respective version with it.

NOTE: Important info not dictated by the other options.

Q+A at the bottom (In no particular order)

-Why are you showing this publicly?

-So people can see a fully functioning list of what I own on my consoles/handhelds, as well as what I wanna buy. Basically, you get some extra options on what you want me to play.

-Why list your Sister's games?

-In case people want me to play them. If and when I move, though, they will be unavailable.

-Will you play games you've already beaten/streamed?

-Technically, yes. I did this with the Splatoon 2 Octo Expansion, and will do this with more if people request them. However, some games will be redone with a challenge implemented because it's hard for me to play through games I've already beaten. If I'm asked to play through a game I've already done on Youtube it's not happening for somewhat obvious reasons.

-Can you link to the respective playlists/vods/whatever of the games you streamed?

-IF I can get it to not look terrible on this list thing, then yeah. Youtube I think is doable, but I don't think it's doable for twitch. I haven't looked into it, though.

-Are there games you own not on this list?

-Sorta. Some are Wii ware titles that can't be played due to issues associated with transferring that I didn't know about, as I transferred my Wii and the contents to my Wii U. I will fix this slightly, but you will have to wait and see.

-Will you make a list for PC games?

-I have over 1,700 games on Steam alone. I will go insane if I attempt it.

- "Why is there so little for Genesis?" "Why do you have X?" Styled questions.

-Sometimes it's yard sales, sometimes it's inheritance from parents, sometimes it's "my sister's school friend was just giving away a bag of ps2 games," and just maybe I was a child and wanted it.

-Why do you still buy games when your backlog is this big? How have you not played X yet?

-....I have a problem, leave me alone.
