

Reactive Attachment Disorder

Quiz

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1mz3Ar7qUCU>

- 1) What are some characteristics of individuals with RAD?
- 2) What are some of the differences between inhibited and disinhibited RAD?
- 3) What is an example of how RAD impacts the brain?
- 4) Name 3 behaviors/signs/symptoms of RAD in older kids.
- 5) True or False. RAD isn't a possibility when foster kids bounce from home to home.
- 6) What Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM-5) criteria must be met to diagnose Reactive Attachment Disorder?
- 7) What are some treatments for RAD?
- 8) It has been found by multiple professionals that treating complex trauma like that experienced by foster children who have come from extremely abusive and neglectful homes requires an intervention strategy that includes 3 main pillars. What are they?

9) There are many Tools and Techniques that can be used for children with RAD – please list four.

10) What is the most important intervention for a young child diagnosed with RAD?

11) Three things that can support a healthy lifestyle and improve outcomes for a child diagnosed with RAD?