

H10 Grammarcab 6

Directions:

- You are to write 10 sentences.
- Each sentence must contain a vocabulary word from Unit 6 and the grammatical elements listed on this page.
- Subject Matter: Choose an overall subject matter based on something you studied in school this month. Sentences should relate to each other in terms of subject matter.

The Sentences (in Order):

1. A sentence in pattern A-3.
2. A sentence in pattern A-5.
3. A sentence in pattern B-2.
4. A periodic sentence in pattern B-3.
5. A sentence containing C-1, C-2, or C-3.
6. A sentence beginning with a subject, then an essential appositive, and then a complete predicate. Ex: My sister Anne is a personal chef and caterer.
7. A sentence containing pattern C-4, C-5, or C-6.
8. A sentence containing pattern D-2. Use an action verb in the infinitive phrase.
9. A sentence containing pattern E-1 or E-2.
10. A sentence containing a noun clause.

Format Requirements:

- Type the sentences in the order listed above.
- Format: 12-pt., Times New Roman, double spaced, 1" margins with an MLA Header (Your name, teacher, class, due date) and title
- Highlight, underline, or make bold the vocabulary word.
- Use a different vocabulary word each time.
- Sentences must use the vocabulary word and grammatical elements correctly, including punctuation.
- Avoid additional editing errors (spelling, punctuation, capitalization, usage).
- Use the vocabulary word in context to show you understand its meaning (NOT "To be adroit is good," for instance). If you need to add a suffix to change the part of speech, that's fine (such as "The racecar driver adroitly maneuvered around the sudden crash").
- Do not copy even a phrase from another source; do your own work. This includes my examples from the patterns packet, such as "To be..." or "At the [movie's] end..." or "At the [end/beginning] of the..."
- Submit to Google Classroom for free grading (see below) and also as a final draft.

Errors with These Requirements: No credit for that sentence.

Point Value: 20 points per unit

H10 Grammarcab 6

*I strongly recommend completing grammarcab early and submitting it to me for free grading. Here's the process:

- Submit your rough draft at Google Classroom.
- I encourage submitting in the morn so that I can get it back to you during the day.
- I will not accept rough drafts for feedback after 7:34 on the morning before it's due.
- Check Google Classroom for the .pdfs of my handwritten feedback.
- You can submit multiple times throughout the week until the cutoff point.
- If your rough draft is "perfect," no need to resubmit. I'll enter a grade accordingly.
- Final drafts are due at the start of class on the due date.
