

P2P Office Hours with Jayson: Working and Thinking Collaboratively

You're invited to sign up for office hours with Jayson Capobianco, P2P Transition Training Coordinator.

Office hours are a support for school staff and partner organizations through P2P.

Here is how it works:

- Please sign up below.
- Signing up for back to back times is perfectly fine.
- Please avoid entering confidential information on this document.
- Please consider other team members that you'd like to join the conversation.
- Jayson will send a calendar invite and zoom link after you sign up.

Office Hours can be utilized for any transition-related topic. Topics include but are not limited to:

- Writing high quality IEP transition plans
- Research-based predictors of post-school success
- Student IEP participation & student-led IEPs
- Person-centered and family-centered planning processes (MAPS, Charting the Lifecourse)
- Transition assessments
- School/program capacity building
- Interagency collaboration
- Transition curricula
- Transition resource hubs and training opportunities
- College and supported college
- Progressive employment (continuum from job readiness to competitive employment)
- Self-determination
- Independent living
- Guardianship & alternatives
- Problem solving & troubleshooting (at student, program, school, or district level)
- Questions or ideas that you'd like to unpack & explore
