
Press text QHtett

The quartet of young trombonist and BMW Young Artist Jazz Award 2025 winner Marie Kuhar impresses musically with its energy—without ever needing to be loud. In this piano-less ensemble, multilayered original compositions create an intimate band sound that, with openness and honesty, quickly dispels stylistic expectations. Free from boundaries, the group shapes a meaningful sound that moves between programmatic music and deeply emotional themes, remaining quietly beautiful and memorable.