- Systemic Collaboration Insights Survey: The School of System Change is currently in a discovery phase for designing a program for system change collaborations that are grappling with how we cultivate transformative structures and relationships in the ways we organize internally. They're in a discovery phase and would love your input: <https://tally.so/r/wobp1O>

- The Transformational Governance Project is a UK-based inquiry currently designing a prototype for a resourced (paid) learning cohort to explore domains of governance practice as levers for change towards an equitable system that enables everyone to thrive.
