Do's and Don'ts

Both fan art and original art is okay, and I'm open to drawing a lot of things, but there are also things I absolutely will not draw. Please ask me beforehand if you're not sure, and I'll see what I can do for you!

Visual or written reference is accepted, but written reference must be accompanied by example photos (anything will work!). I am more likely to accept commissions with visual reference and written reference with lots of example pictures.

Preferable:

[Just things I like most! Doesn't determine acceptance]

- Busts/portraits
- Pink palettes
- OC's/Familiar fanart

Probably Not:

- Furrries/anthropomorphic characters [style dependent. Sonic okay.]

Absolutely Not:

- Heavy gore/guro, unless it is stylized (which I enjoy!)
- Willfully hateful and/or discriminatory content
- Shota/Loli
- Real people

Regarding NSFW (explicitly sexual content):

- All NSFW commissions will be subjected to an age confirmation. You must be 18+ to order.

Please keep in mind I reserve the right to refuse any kind of commission for any reason.

The Process!

I will only accept Paypal payments done through invoices.

- Fill out the commission form! You may also contact me with any questions, and I'll send you the form as well. You will be notified if I accept your commission, and we can talk more details!
- Full payment up front is required.
- Once sketched, I will send for your approval. You can request changes here.
- Once the sketch is approved, I will line it. You can request changes here as long as they aren't major.*
- I'll color! Only extremely minor changes to the drawing can be made at this time—but color/palette changes are fine! If you'd like a major change, you will be charged extra if I approve it.
- You receive the art for your personal viewing pleasures—or whatever floats your boat, as long as it isn't commercial.

Please keep in mind the stages at which changes are allowed. No exceptions will be made, so please consider things carefully!

*What constitutes a major change will be determined on a case by case basis.
(Example: requesting a different hairstyle near the end of the coloring is a major change, as it requires a total redraw).

Other Fun Stuff.

- Commissions will be done in paid chronological order received.
- If, for any reason, I am unable to complete a commission, a full refund will be offered.
- I [the artist] retain all rights to the artwork produced. If you would like to commission me for commercial projects, please contact me so we can work out a separate contract.
 - I [the artist] under no circumstances will ever use original character commissions for commercial purposes. I may, however, use them in my portfolio and post them online. Please let me know if you would not like your commission posted publicly!
 - You [the commissioner] may not use commissioned artwork for commercial purposes without paying a commercial fee. However, you are more than welcome to print and purchase one-off items (keychains, stickers/ect.) for your own personal use!
 - You [the commissioner], in the event of making one-off items for personal use, will be entirely responsible for production and costs on your own terms. By default, I will not produce them for you.
- You [the commissioner] understand that you will not be receiving a physical item, but a digital one. Physical copies of commissioned pieces may be available upon request and will be charged an extra fee.

Creation of non-fungible tokens [NFT's] using my artwork in whole or part is strictly forbidden, even with a commercial license.

By commissioning me, you agree to all the conditions stated above.
