

Session 07:

Shaping the Future of M&E Education

Part 2 of the panel, Leveraging Experience from Existing Initiatives for the Future of M&E Education, brings together key insights on Teaching, Research, and Dissemination in Monitoring & Evaluation. This session delves into effective practices from established academic courses, offering valuable perspectives on how these programs can inspire new educational paths in M&E.

Featuring:

- ♦ Jahnvi Andharia, Director, Institute of Social Studies Trust, India
- ♦ Prof. Reinhard Stockmann, Director, Center for Evaluation, University of Saarland, Germany
- ♦ Dr. Ruchi Kaushik, Assistant Professor, Lady Irwin College, University of Delhi, India
- ♦ Prof. Y. Nanthagopan, Professor in Project Management and Dean, Faculty of Business Studies, University of Vavuniya, Sri Lanka
- ♦ Prof. Jina Byun, Professor, International Development Evaluation Center, SangMyung University, South Korea
- ♦ Swapnil Shekhar, Co-Founder and Director, Sambodhi Research and Communications, India

Through shared experiences and strategic discussions, this session highlights both opportunities and challenges in launching M&E courses. From exploring innovative ways to overcome learning barriers to enhancing course impact, it sets the stage for evolving M&E education with greater reach and relevance.

#MnEsymposium #MnEeducation #EvalVisionAsia #Eval4Action